Presented by
Trent Cotney, Attorney – Cotney Attorneys & Consultants

The IIBEC SoCal Chapter, in partnership with RCA of Southern California, invites you to learn, network, and dine at a our first in-person Technical Dinner Meeting of 2022 at the Coyote Hills Golf Course at 1440 E Bastanchury Road in Fullerton, CA. This program is designed to improve the knowledge base of consultants, contractors, and design professionals practicing in the roofing, waterproofing and building enclosure field. This seminar will include dinner and will be a joint meeting with the RCA of Southern California.

Join us for an evening with Trent Cotney to discuss his take on the legal ramifications of the current supply chain issues affecting our industry. Trent will be calling in virtually for presentation and questions.

Trent Cotney is board-certified construction lawyer by the Florida Bar and is licensed in Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Massachusetts, Tennessee, Texas, Washington, and D.C. He focuses his practice on all aspects of construction litigation and arbitration, including OSHA defense, lien law, bond law, bid protects, and construction document review and drafting. He routinely represents construction and infrastructure clients, including general contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, manufacturers, architects, engineers, roofers, developers, and others in various matters.

Trent is recognized by his peers throughout the construction industry as one of the leading attorneys in his field of practice. He has received numerous honors and distinction because of his dedication to the legal profession and his expertise in construction and infrastructure law.
