

YOUTH MUSIC EDUCATION

A BETTER TOMORROW

The Central Pennsylvania Music Hall of Fame is a non-profit organization that strives to recognize, support, and grow our local music scene--beginning with our next generation of musicians.

⇒ YOUTH MUSIC SHOWCASE:

Annual performances featuring our area's most talented youth acts (ages 11-18) at Millersville University. We partner with local businesses to provide music-related prizes to assist each artist in advancing their career.

⇒ YOUTH ALL-STAR BAND:

Central PA's top youth talent is selected to record a cover of a popular song at one of the area's best recording studios. In 2023, the Central Pennsylvania Youth All-Star Band recorded their version of The Who's "Baba O'Riley;" you can check out the epic music video on YouTube!

⇒ YOUTH ACT BOOKINGS:

Considering most bars/venues are 21+ only, we help artists/bands (age 18 and under) to discover opportunities to perform their music in front of a crowd. One of these opportunities is on the CPMHOF's/Englewood Roasting Company's back porch--Saturdays in the summer!

⇒ YOUTH MUSIC CAMPS:

Educational classes for kids (toddlers to pre-teens) to learn how to play instruments like ukuleles and bucket drums. Our participants receive instruction from professional music educators on the basics of rhythm, time, and pitch.
