

REQUESTING AN HOUSE SCRIPT

PRO TIP - Make sure to sound enthusiastic when you're on the phone so the listing agent senses a lot of positivity and energy from you. Remember, you are helping to market someone else's listing, and they're going to want the best!

If they answer the phone:

Agent: Hi, _____, this is _____ from _____. How's your day going?

Agent: Awesome! I'm calling about your listing at _____, it looks absolutely FANTASTIC!

Agent: Well I really enjoy working that area, and I'm calling to see if it may be possible to have an opportunity to host an open house for you this weekend?

OR, if you have a specific day in mind:

Agent: Well I really enjoy working that area, and I'm calling to see if it may be possible to have an opportunity to host an open house for you this weekend on _____?

If you leave a voicemail:

Hi, _____, this is _____ from _____, I hope you're doing well and are having a great day. I'm calling about your listing at _____, it looks FANTASTIC, and I really enjoy working that area. I'm calling to see if it may be possible for the opportunity to host an open house for you this weekend? I'd love to help bring you a buyer. Would you please give me a call or text at this number and let me know? Thank you so much for your time _____, I hope to hear from you soon. Have a great day.
