Bryce Boshell and Luca Moris had the honor of interviewing Christian Pontier about his time in the US Marines. He is currently active and has been in the Marines for a decade. Despite not serving in combat he has learned much from his experiences and is continuing to grow as a family man.

Christian began the interview by explaining how and why he entered the military. He explained, "I had a conversation with a Marine Corps recruiter. I told him what I ultimately wanted to be able to do. I wanted to be able to take care of myself. I didn't want to have to rely on anybody. I wanted to be able to take care of my family one day. I wanted to be able to have a set of technical skills that I could take
