FROM OUR SENIOR MINISTER

Rev. Dr. Elizabeth Bingham

FAITHFULLY YOURS: The day after the 4 th of July

This year the holiday falls on a Monday, so we will be up late watching the fireworks or listening to the fireworks or calming our dogs and cats and little ones who are scared by the loud noise of fireworks. We may well have had a barbecue, or watched a parade, sung a song or two and listened to the Declaration of Independence being read. (Or you may have heard it on Sunday at church...)

So the day after, July 5th, our world will be “back to normal.” There may be folks who took extra time off because of the holiday. There may be debris from fireworks that shouldn’t have been set off lying around to be picked up. Trash cans might be overflowing with paper plates and corn cobs. But businesses and banks will be back in full swing.

We think back to the shots that were fired to start the revolution to assure our freedom. We consider the risks and sacrifices men and women took to make sure we could worship God “as he was pleased to reveal himself unto us.” (From the 1629 Salem church covenant –and our own church covenant).

So July 5th might be the day when we take the revolution to heart, when we honor our spiritual ancestors. We make God known. We share our faith. We open our doors to all of those seeking a community which accepts them and welcomes and invites them to journey with us on the path that Jesus set before us. For as it was written in 1776—We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. And we set about the work to change a world which makes happiness and life and liberty—possible by feeding the hungry body and the hungry soul, finding shelter for those who have no roofs over their heads or who are alone and afraid, clothing the ones who shiver in the cold air or from deepest sorrow—visiting the ones who are broken in body, broken in spirit.

Let us use our freedom to bring the love of God and the presence of Christ to a weary, weary world.

With Deep Affection, Beth

JANE'S CORNER

"Dear God,

Help me to practice balancing in a world filled with ceaseless motion. Give me strength to not put on blinders to all that is wrong in the world. Instead, let me make a meaningful difference as I move forward. AMEN" Maria Shriver

I have been in a total state of disbelief the past several weeks. Wondering what kind of footprint we as a country are leaving for current and future generations. I'm worried for my children, friends and family members. And just when the tears started once again, I got the above Instagram post from Maria Shriver. Wise words. Then another post came through from our church:

At my lowest, God is my HOPE.

At my darkest, God is my LIGHT.

At my weakest, God is my STRENGTH.

At my saddest, God is my COMFORTER."

I will try my very best to remember these inspiring words, and I hope you do too, when fears and tears begin again. These words give strength to fight on.

Blessings and hugs, Jane

Please find time to be with God.

BUILT TO LAST

We all want our lives to matter. But how do we know if we're doing the right thing? In a world where nothing is guaranteed, nothing is certain, you can build a life that can last. In the Bible, we can find practical guidance for everyday life.

The most important feature of any permanent structure is its foundation. That's because it's the foundation that determines the strength and stability of the building or lack thereof. With this in mind, Scripture often compares our lives to the construction of a building.

The Bible says, "You are God's building...Because of God's grace to me, I have laid the foundation like an expert builder. Now others are building on it. But whoever is building on this foundation must be very careful" 1Corinthians 3:9-10

Similarly Jude wrote, "But you, beloved, build yourselves up on (the foundation of) your most holy faith (continually progress, rise like an edifice higher and higher)." Jude 1:20

A life built on God's Word is like a house built on a solid foundation—it is built to last! Both the wise man and the foolish man heard the Lord's teaching, but the wise man's obedience to the Word that was heard is what made the difference. Likewise, when we build our life with obedience to God's Word, it ensures stability as we rise like a beautifully erected building. When we're grounded and shaped by God's Word, we'll stand firm when life's storms arise. Therefore, let's build wisely!

You were BUILT TO LAST.

Believe it! Curtis

DEACON NEWS

The Deacons met on the 19th following church. Not a lot new to report. We decided not to do Christmas in July this year due to time constraints. We have also decided to suspend collecting for the Angel fund in that we have sufficient funds to meet our current needs. We know that there is a problem with the current Communion Cups with the juice part being almost impossible to open. We have samples from a different maker and they are much better. We will use them at our next Communion on July 3.

Until next time, Greg

TRUSTEE NEWS

For campus maintenance and repairs, our parking lot was “slurry-ed” and re-striped. They will be coming back to do a few touch-ups. We received some bad news from our arborist, that we must remove the large tree to the west of the pool, the one within the new white fenced area, that the Eagle Scout and Boy Scouts recently installed for us. We plan to plant a new tree in its place. We continue our research on a new dishwasher for Bower Hall kitchen and are pleased to accept a $2,000 donation toward it from the Woman’s Association. A big THANK YOU! We are considering a new surface for the picnic area to the east of the pool, and we are looking into engraved bricks. If anyone has done this before or is interested in helping with this, please let me know. If there is anything you see that needs repair or you want to donate to a campus improvement, please let one of us know; thanks!

Our Board meets on the 3rd Tuesday of each month, if you have any items or concerns related to Personnel, Finances or Building and Grounds please contact a Trustee.

RACIAL EQUITY NEWS

Submitted by Michele Marot

We held our first in-person meeting in June. It was really lovely and we got a lot accomplished. We decided to light a candle every Sunday in June in remembrance of those who recently lost their lives in mass shootings and hate crimes (too many!). We talked about having Raye Zaragoza, one of Shirley’s daughters, performing one day in church and/or at skit night (or at least play the YouTube video) her original song, “Change Your Name.” And we discussed ways in which we can continue to make all people feel welcome in our church.

We plan to meet regularly in person, after church, on the first Sunday of each month. However, we will skip July as that is the 4th of July weekend. Please listen for an announcement of our next Racial Equity Meeting!

NACCC NEWS

Greg Abbott, Rep

The annual meeting of the NACCC is closed and I admit to being a little bit sad. Don’t tell Beth this, but I went with a little trepidation. But wow, what an experience! The conference opened with three terrific speakers on Saturday and was followed by workshops.

Sunday we had an awesome service at Plymouth Congregational Church in Wichita. It’s an old stone church and we ended up with at least 250 people in the Sanctuary, just like in the 60’s. The energy was amazing! Even more amazing was the music! The two choirs of the host churches were combined with a choir made up of conference attendees to create an awesome sound! The service was streamed live and will be posted on Plymouth’s Facebook page soon.

The nitty gritty of the business sessions was held on Monday. These can be a little dry but it is the main reason for meeting.

It was great to see so many old friends and make some new ones—overall, a great meeting!

The 2023 meeting will held June 24 to 27 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Think cheese, beer, cheese, brats, and more cheese. Seriously consider attending!

STAVES CHAPEL ~ STAINED GLASS WINDOWS

When the Chapel was dedicated in 1952 the windows were of plain glass and were replaced over the years with stained glass windows depicting the history of Congregationalism from our roots in England to the founding of Church of the Chimes. The eleventh of the Chapel's fourteen stained glass windows entitled "Westward Movement" is pictured below with a description of its significance. To the right of this and at bottom are the previous 10 of these windows which were detailed in earlier editions of Chiming In.

Submitted by Joi Staves

11: WESTWARD MOVEMENT:

Although the church was part of the early westward movement, and therefore, the spread of Congregational beliefs, it was mainly a New England based religion. However, that situation began to change due to the gold rush in Northern California at the end of the 1840's, followed by California statehood in 1850. Americans began the western migration in earnest.

"12: Gold Rush Churches" will be featured in the August 2022 Chiming In

9: "Haystack Meeting"

8: "Establishment of Colleges"

7: "The First Thanksgiving"
