FROM OUR SENIOR MINISTER

Faithfully Yours

When I was growing up, February was a busy, holiday filled, construction paper kind of month. There were the presidents: silhouettes of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington cut out of black paper, and pasted carefully on a white background. We would hear stories of each of them. Abe would be chopping wood or reading by candlelight, and George would be cutting down a cherry tree.

There were red hearts for Valentine's Day. We carefully folded the paper (red to be simple or white to color) in half, and carefully cut out a heart that wouldn't be terribly lopsided. Usually they were for our moms and dads, who would always be delighted to get something we had made ourselves.

Then every four years there was February 29th. We would giggle when someone in class had a birthday that day, because, after all, it meant that they weren't eight years old like the rest of us, but only two. Teachers weren't sure what to do about the day. I was delighted when Mrs. Ottensmeyer had us make a calendar of the month of February, making the 29th the biggest square of all. Because, she told us, it is a day which only comes every four years, so make the most of it. Draw something you want to do, that you haven't done before.

This is exactly what we are going to be doing together on February 29 this year, at the Congregational Church of the Chimes' "Leap into the Future with 20-20 Vision" Retreat. Although most of us have been on retreats, this will be a time when we dream dreams we haven't dreamed before. We will get to know people we haven't known well before. We will feel glimmers of faith we haven't felt before. We will face a future we haven't known before...a future we will fill with faith, and fellow-ship—bound together in the love of God, following the path of God's son.

It just doesn't get better than that!

Love and Blessings! Beth

DEACONS UPDATE FOR FEBRUARY 2020

Four of our members helped coordinate the reception after the memorial service, for John Wright. Women's Association members, two staff members, and a few other people also helped with ordering food, setup, and cleanup. Our thoughts and prayers continue to be with Ginger and her family.

Below are Thank You notes received from the Christmas Families.

HISTORY FOR THE CURIOUS

Stanley Dong, Historian

The Symbols in Our Sanctuary

The outside church wall of solid brick is constructed of Ojai stone. Some other architectural details in the lower part of this wall on the Magnolia Ave side, deserving our attention, are six symbols of our past, three on each side between the cross. Furthest left is a stone of Bethlehem; to its right is a piece of stone from Corinth. Both symbolize significant places in the formation of our Christian faith; Bethlehem was the city of David's ancestry, where Jesus Christ our Lord was born, and Corinth was the city where the Apostle Paul started a great early church.

The third stone on the left side is a Greek cross, characterized by the four equal sides. Going from left to right on the right side of the cross, is a five point star, symbolizing the Epiphany of our Lord, reminding us of the sign given to the Wise Men. Next is a stone from Srooby, Nottinghamshire, England where the earliest Congregational Church on English soil, under the leadership of John Robinson and William Brewster, can be traced. On the far right side is a stone from Plymouth, England, the point of departure of the Pilgrims on the Mayflower, on their historical trip to the New World.

The wood carvings surrounding the Magnolia and Hazeltine Ave doors provide more symbols of our faith. They remind us of the source of the story of the Life of Christ, as related in the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

There are many memorials and special gifts to our Church, which are listed in the Book of Life, located in a special glass-covered stand in the Narthex. Next to the Hazeltine entrance is a handicraft model of an outrigger, a gift from the Congregational Churches of the Marshall Islands. The table and case enclosing this outrigger was constructed by Maurice R. Leech and dedicated on January 26, 1977.

Directly above the Book of Life is the Life Eternal Plaque, of baked enamel on copper, which was designed and created by church member and organist, Mrs. Millie Andrews. This plaque symbolizes the Christian conviction that mankind, even though in the unknown, proceeds Christ-like into the light and reality of God's presence.

The Sanctuary has a seating capacity of approximately 750 in the pews, with 100 more in the choir stalls. At the front is the magnificent stained glass

I didn't get permission from my folks, for fear they would say no. They were so busy on Sundays, that I knew my absence would go unnoticed.

Unfortunately, we had a minor accident on the way, which required me to go the emergency room to get a couple of stitches (no seatbelts). Since I was under age, adult approval was required. Church wasn't over yet, so my parents were unreachable (no cell phones).

Wayne's dad, Mr. Freeman arrived, looking for an explanation as to why he had been driving the uninsured (for him) family car, so he authorized my care.

I had been dreading the moment when my parents found out, and was relieved when they weren't available. I knew that a single band aid would cover the stitches, so my hope was that they wouldn't notice. Unfortunately for me, Mr. Freeman was much more responsible than I was, and he made sure that my folks were apprised of my injury.

My friends all thought that it was hilarious that I'd been caught going to Bob's instead of Sunday School. My parents did not!

Sunday School

For years, the church had trouble finding enough locations to conduct children's Sunday School classes and various solutions were implemented over the years.

At first, the stables at the back of the property, where Weddington Street is now, were cleaned up and used. A major obstacle was that the City refused to issue a permit to install electricity. The solution was to run a very long extension cord from Dreier Hall!

Several years later, the stables were gone, the educational unit hadn't been built, and the number of children had grown substantially. Consequently, there was even more of a need for Sunday School class facilities. Fortunately, our temperate California weather provided the solution; classes were held outside under the trees.

Every Sunday, an older teen, Wayne Freeman and I would arrive at six am, and set up a table and chairs for ten to fifteen children, under various trees around the campus. With church services at 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00, classes would cycle through the locations in shifts. For the babies, there was a nursery in the north upstairs bedroom of Hamilton House.

The adults had Sunday School too. Called Koffee Klatch, it was held on the Hamilton House patio, and was led by Dick Hoffman. Chairs faced the fireplace in a semi-circle, the coffee pot in the same place as now. On cold or rainy days, a fire blazed in the fireplace.

More of a discussion group, the religion based subjects were wide ranging and stimulating. Many times their discussions became so involved, that they had to abruptly wrap up a spirited debate, in order to welcome the congregation after the service, as they joined them for refreshments.

One Sunday, when I was fourteen, after singing in the choir at the 9:30am service, I was supposed to go to Sunday School at 11:00. However, Wayne and his friend invited me to go to Bob's Big Boy, on Van Nuys Blvd. This was exciting, as they were the "big kids" and Bob's was the place to go if you were a teenager. Naturally I went!

window, donated by church members as a memorial to Dr Walter Staves. Also in front is the 17 foot tall silver cross, designed by silversmith Allan Adler. Fabricated from treasures contributed by the members, it was worked into a gleaming symbol, representing the faith of the congregation.

The eight small windows in the Sanctuary Balcony are all symbols of Christ: (1) I am the Door, John 10:9; symbolic of our Savior, (2) I am the Vine, John 15:1; the branches represent his followers, a symbol that is often seen in wood carvings and paintings, (3) The Fish; a secret sign used by early Christians to identify each other, and keep from exposing themselves to the foes of Christianity, (4) The Good Shepherd, John 10:11; symbol of Jesus Christ, who laid down his life for his flock; (5) I am the Way, John 14:6; symbol of Christ's leadership; (6) I am the Light, John 8:12; signifying that Christ's followers will enjoy the light of life; (7) The Bread of Life, John 6:35; signifying that Christ satisfies our spiritual hunger; (8) The Crown, representing Jesus as Lord and King, as suggested in 1 Peter 5:4, "And when the chief Shepherd is manifested you will obtain the unfading crown of glory."

The sixteen wood carvings in the Nave symbolize the contributions of the Christian faith to the life and welfare of mankind. Starting from the back of the Pulpit and winding all around to the back of the lectern, they are (1) Immortality, (2) Marriage, (3) The High Position of Womanhood, (4) Family Life, (5) Peace, (6) Liberty, (7) Justice, (8) Social Action, (9) Scientific Research, (10) Medical Research, (11) Freedom of Interpretation, (12) Education, (13) World Missions, (14) Representative Government, (15) Brotherhood and (16) Ecumenicity. These symbols represent the very essence of Congregationalism. Most of them were designed by Dr. Staves and Theodore Sebern.

Beyond the front window, is the Chapel of the Garden, a gift from Dr. Katherine Gibson. The three sprays of water represent the Trinity: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

With so many Sanctuary symbols reminding us of God's Love and His purposes for our lives, how can we not feel His presence among us?

Greg Abbott, Chair

A SPECIAL THANKS FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

The response to our Estimate of Giving campaign has been wonderful! Thanks to all of you who have given us cards to indicate what you expect to be able to give to the church in the coming year. If you haven't turned in a card yet—there is still time. This process enables the Board of Trustees to present a realistic budget at our congregational meeting February 2nd which will be in the Sanctuary immediately after the worship service.

JANUARY TRUSTEES MEETING

Things continue to progress in a positive direction. We reviewed the proposed budget, which will be presenting to the congregation on Sunday, February 2. Don't expect any huge changes.

In other news, we approved the purchase and installation of a shed, to be installed in the open space between the work shop and garages. This will allow us to have all the Christmas decorations in one area. It will free up the storage closet behind the Lectern, and eliminates the many trips up and down the Hamilton House basement stairs.

In other news, Diane Delaney presented two bids for the remodel of the Dreier Hall kitchen. We are waiting for a third bid to be submitted, so we can proceed with this long delayed project.

During the meeting, Louisa mentioned that she found the Hamilton House refrigerator to be offensive. Since we use this heavily to support our Sunday receptions, we all need to make sure that it is free of expired food, and kept clean and orderly.

At the end of our meeting, we entered Executive Session to discuss additional matters of importance.

CONGREGATIONAL BUDGET MEETING: FEBRUARY 2, 2020

Be sure and join us after worship on Sunday, February 2nd, in the Sanctuary when the Trustees will present their proposed budget for 2020. All members of the church are eligible to vote, and all are welcome to attend. This is an important part of the life of our church as we address our responsibilities and priorities as a faithful community.

Jane's Corner ~ Ask, Seek, Knock

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Jane Poole, Director

“Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.”
Matthew 7:7-8

I was thinking about doors and the above Bible verse, while walking our dog Phoebe, this brisk and beautiful morning. About how all the front doors in our neighborhood look so different. Not one of them the same, in the 40+ houses I passed. And behind those closed front doors, I guessed not one household had the same life circumstances occurring. They were all different, but also all the same, as each person behind those doors all had a heart beating. Figuratively I began to feel the hearts and began to pray for all of my neighbors, most of which I don't know personally.

I prayed for peace and comfort. For good health, or for those who don't have that, for healing. I prayed for food to be on their tables, and for happy hearts. In essence, I prayed for their lives to be glorified by God. Praying for my neighbors had a surprising effect on me. It brought a sense of calm and stillness.

Then when I got here to the church for our monthly Pre-School chapel service, I was graced to be in the presence of the Pre-School children with bright and beautiful little souls. Full of love and many hugs too.

Later when I went to biblegateway.com for Bible passages for our woman's Bible study tonight, the above Bible verse was the devotion for the day. I believe this was no coincidence. God was knocking on my door to encourage me to share my early morning happenings with you. May you always have an open heart to the beautiful things around you, to experience peace and comfort, and to always have your ear open to the knock on your God door for God's love to enter and shine on you!

Blessings and hugs, Jane

...and remember to be take some quiet time with God!

“Whatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive.”

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Robert Jones, Chair

To bring honor and glory to the King of Kings, each of us is called upon to serve Him. We can do this in many different and personal ways. At Church Of The Chimes, there are various boards and committees, in which members can actively play a role in the responsibility of leading, as well as reaching out to those in need, wherever they may be.

We encourage everyone to join in the effort to spread the Good News of the Lord. For those who do not currently serve on a board or committee, we invite you to consider the various positions where vacancies currently exist. Through offering your time and talents you will be helping the Church of the Chimes on our continuing path, as a vibrant and deeply caring church.

But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.
