FROM OUR SENIOR MINISTER

Rev. Dr. Elizabeth Bingham

FAITHFULLY YOURS

It is traditional that at the beginning of a new year we look back at what has been and forward to what might be. And we all know that the last years have been different, challenging our physical health, our emotional wellbeing, even our livelihoods.

As I was trying to figure out how to move into 2022 I thought about clutter. Getting rid of clutter has become a goal for many, a consulting business for some who help those of us who feel over cluttered, and even the subject of a bestselling book. (The life changing magic of Tidying Up By Marie Kondo).

The general suggestion is to put things in three piles: Throw away, keep and give away. That seems like a pretty good way of shedding this year and entering next year.

So let's look at our lives and figure out all within us that we can just get rid of: grudges, disappointments, times when we think we failed, when we were hurt, when we hurt someone else. Throw away all the regrets and the wishes that never came true.

Keep the joys and thrills of the past year, the resilience that has gotten us through the illness and chaos and uncertainty that has plagued our nation and circled the world. Keep the moments of love and friendship which, honestly, will simply not go away. Keep the faith which has held us together, those moments when God is so close and so real...for they will strengthen us in difficult times to come. And keep the questions that are unanswered, the wonderings that have crept into your mind for there may be answers and sometimes the questions themselves keep us awake to the ways God meets us, interrupts us, reassures us.

But we have lots to give away too! We can share the faith which defines us and fills us with hopefulness. We can share the love which God showers upon us—a love made known in gestures grand and small. We can give thanks for the ways in which people have loved us and been good to us and sheltered us and cared for us. And yes, as we look at the stuff we have we can give away what we don't need because, as most of us know, someone else may need it more.

With uncluttered heart, with faith filled souls swaddled in love, let us leave 2021 behind and enter 2022 with God beside us as we walk with the Son of God, our Savior and Redeemer, along his path of love and mercy and justice.

With deep affection, Beth

TRUSTEE NEWS

Curtis Leseman, Chair

The Trustee Board did not meet in December. However, we continue to monitor the stewardship drive which has been successful. We are grateful for the pledges received and there is still time to return your estimate of giving cards if you have not yet done so. The board has been honored to participate in the "Hope of the Valley" Christmas families program this year.

In other news, the renovation of the Drier Hall kitchen is completed and is ready for use, we are continuing to do maintenance items on campus, and we will be pursuing bids for patching of the parking area.

Have a wonderful New Year. Respectfully submitted, Curtis Leseman

OUR STEWARDSHIP DRIVE: Stewardship: A way of living...

Estimate of Giving cards are available in the office for those who have not yet submitted one. Knowing the potential level of giving helps the church immensely as we continue to serve the needs of our church community. Thank you for the blessing of your generosity!

CONGREGATIONALISM CLASS: What membership means

Are you interested in learning more about Congregationalism and our church? Are you wondering what it means to be a member of the Church of the Chimes? Join us on Sunday, January 23, after worship for a class on Congregationalism and the history and organization of our church. Those who are interested in joining the church will be received into membership during our morning worship on Sunday, February 6.

And those of you who are a part of our faith fellowship remotely—we welcome you to become a member too!

Everyone is always welcome to all of our services and activities at the church. Membership in the Congregational tradition is important because all decisions for the church rest with the membership and each voice is important in who we are and how we continue to move into the future.

So whether you are ready to consider joining, or are just anxious to learn more about our tradition and our church, join us.

If you are unable to attend but are interested, please let Dr. Bingham know; this class can be attended via ZOOM.

DEACON NEWS

Greg Abbott, Chair

Though we didn't have an official meeting in December, we were very busy. We gathered after church on December 19 to box up all the gifts for The Genesis House of Hope of The Valley. Sylvia and I delivered the gifts on Tuesday the 21st. I want to thank my fellow Deacons and each and every one of you for your support and generosity in this project. It was a challenge to start with a new entity but with everyone's hard work we made it happen. Thank you all again and Happy New Year. Greg

FROM OUR ASSOCIATE MINISTER

Rev. Curtis Peek

WISE MEN STILL SEEK HIM!

"And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh." ~ Matthew 2:11

As we began to ponder with the Lord about the upcoming year, many people will start their annual New Years Resolutions.

Be it resolved that God has been giving hints all year long about what 2022 was going to hold for the Body of Christ. He has provided several key points that must become your life message. I believe the Lord is going to cause 2022 to be a year of restructuring how we do life, ministry, family and many other areas. I believe specifically the first 3 months of the year are key in this process to prepare us for a great shift to come in the second and third quarters of the year. I sense that as we begin to embrace these "restructurings" we will begin to see a move of God take place in the Body of Christ like never before.

You must get ready for this great and powerful move of God. Since time waits on no man, you must redeem every moment to make wise choices. Allow God to speak to you. Because WISE MEN STILL SEEK HIM. Offer the Lord the gift of your life as the living sacrifice. Don't wait until New Years, do it now! Believe it! Curtis Happy New Year!

JANE'S CORNER

Jane G. Poole, CE Director

As some of you may know, I'm not a fan of New Year's resolutions. I prefer taking steps toward new beginnings, or, to mixing things up in my life, or, to simply do better at something without pressure.

January 1st is just the beginning of another new year. The physical calendar is just an outline of months and days. Each year there are 12 firsts where we have an opportunity to step forward with the intention to move ourselves in a new direction or beginning. Each 1st of a month is an opportunity to tell the people we care about, that we care about them! It can be a reminder to share what we have with those who don't have. It can be a time to make an unselfish effort to cheer others on their life path. And in doing so, our lives may become happier. Below are quotes I'm sharing as encouragement for 2022.

"Peace is the result of retraining your mind to process life as it is, rather than as you think it should be." ~ Dr. Wayne Dyer

*"Choose love, and peace will follow. Choose peace, and love will follow."
~ Mary Helen Doyle*

"Kindness ~ Do you know that one of your greatest strengths is simply to be kind? Yes, being kind. You can change a life being kind. You can give hope being kind.

So listen, today choose to be kind." ~ Rachel Marie Martin

"Use your voice for kindness, your ears for compassion, your hands for charity, your mind for truth, and your heart for love." ~ Anonymous

Peace, blessings, hugs and love for the new year and all years, Jane

STAVES CHAPEL ~ STAINED GLASS WINDOWS

The Chapel's stained glass windows which depict Congregationalism from our roots in England to the founding of Church of the Chimes were of plain glass when the Chapel was dedicated in 1952. Designated memorial gifts replaces the plain glass over the years. The first five stained glass windows are pictured below along with an overview of the significance of the fifth of the Chapel's fourteen stained glass windows, entitled "5: Plymouth Landing".

5: PLYMOUTH LANDING:

After over two months of what must have been a harrowing, miserable journey, the troupe arrived at Cape Cod. Significantly, this was several hundred miles north of its planned destination in Virginia owing to storms at sea. The passengers realized they were outside the bounds of the governmental authority they had contracted with England. William Bradford, the Pilgrim leader at this time, was alarmed to hear that some of the others felt no obligation to respect the rules of the Pilgrims. Because there was an immediate need to formulate some plans for self-government, they drew up the "Association and Agreement" which became known in history as the "Mayflower Compact."

"6: Adoption of the Mayflower Compact" will be featured in the February 2022 Chiming In.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION NEWS

December was a very busy month for CE ministries! The Christmas story, "God With Us", was beautifully and passionately presented by the church youth. On the 19th, the Sunshine and Shadows Quilt raffle concluded with a final total of $422 raised for "Shoes that Fit." Thanks to all who supported this outreach project. On the HH patio, Dianna Roden picked the winning ticket – Sylvia McCormick! She was stunned to have won the quilt, and quickly and graciously donated it back to the church! When CE has our next meeting, we'll talk about where it should be hung and/or used. In the meantime, we'll keep it in the Narthex for people to see after being warmly welcomed by Robert, John and others as they come into our church!

FYI: There is one more S & S quilt, with the art of all emojis. This raffle will be sometime in late winter. The proceeds of this one will benefit the children and youth social activities. Those funds will help underwrite activities such as ice skating, movies, bowling etc...

After the quilt raffle on the 19th, a group of WBS women gathered in Bower Hall to assemble purses for the Purse Project. We put together 28 purses stuffed to the top with meaningful contents and other goodies for the House of Ruth, a woman's shelter. We were even able to include a gift card for each of the women in the bags! Bless Michele for taking this project under her wing, and thanks to Jan Long for researching the shelter. Thanks to all who contributed to this outreach!

The youth groups will resume their Friday and Sunday gatherings on January 7th for the BE Bold Youth group and on the 9th for Super Kids.

HEAR THE GOSPEL OF...NEW YEAR’S RESOLUTIONS?

~ By Terry Palestro

It’s the New Year. A fresh start. A new beginning. A changing of the guard. And yes, resolutions. Every year at this time millions of us resolve to lose weight, quit smoking, eat healthier, have better family relations, get a better job, finish that screenplay, and dozens of other things we wish to accomplish. But what should we resolve as Christians? Scripture doesn’t specifically mention new year resolutions, but as Christians we have an amazing Savior who will always help us succeed and, while we’re at it, why not yoke our secular resolutions and spiritual resolutions together?

First, let us forgive others and carry no grudges. This could be the hardest, near impossible, most demanding thing to accomplish. Remember what Paul wrote in Colossians 3:13: “Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone...forgive as the Lord forgave you.” Wouldn’t this go a long way to healing family relations? Friendships? Business partnerships?

Second, do you know your body is a temple? Well, it is! And the Bible says so in 1 Corinthians 6:19: “Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God?” Then why do we pollute our temples with smoking, excessive drinking, bad diets, overeating, and drugs? This pollution, little by little, destroys our earthly bodies and dishonors the Holy Spirit inside us. Let’s drop that twinkie and hit the gym!

Third, and lastly (until next year), don’t complain. Did our Creator give us a mouth so we can complain, moan, and gripe? Philippians 2:14 commands us: “Do everything without complaining and arguing.” You were overcharged at the supermarket? Be pleasant and correct the charge, mistakes happen. Traffic? Chill out and tune in your favorite radio station. Whenever we feel like complaining, replace it with a prayer or a praise to God, and to take it one step further, prayer and praise could be a daily practice!

Forgiving, better health, and no complaining. It’s been said that solutions to all our resolutions can be found in the inspired word of God. Amen to that.

Terry is a member of the recently formed COTC Writers Group, “Praise the Prose.” We meet the third Saturday of each month from noon to 1:30pm. All ages--and all types of writing--are welcome. Please join us!
