FROM OUR SENIOR MINISTER

Rev. Dr. Elizabeth Bingham

FAITHFULLY YOURS

- October: Candy corn, costumes, pumpkins, skeletons and haunting sounds;
HALLOWEEN IS COMING SOON.
- October: Falling leaves, autumn colors, crisper air;
THE NEW SEASON OF GOD’S CREATION.
- October: Books and games, pancakes and music, electronics, a country store and high end silent auction items;
THE GOLDEN WEST FAIR IS HERE !

But also this October, like October every other year: TV ads, radio spots, yard signs and petitions, think...booklets in the mail with names...and parties and lots and lots of propositions; the CAMPAIGN SEASON is upon us!

There are important decisions before us: Who we want to serve as our mayor, our City Council representative, our congressional delegate—which side of which issue we take, how we will vote on the multiple propositions...

And while our church will not be telling you who you should vote for or what you should vote for, our faith tells us first of all that we should VOTE! And further, our decisions should be informed by our faithfulness. We take what we believe to the ballot box—which candidate has the integrity, the truthfulness, the values we cherish. Which propositions will fulfill what we believe and will be of greatest benefit to all God’s children?

And we know that we will not all feel the same way about everything—which is the very point of the election, of the discussions, of the conversations we have with others, with ourselves and with our faith. Let us be respectful and civil to one another. Let us listen and read carefully the words within the speeches and the debates and the advertisements to find the presence of what we value as children of God who are called to love our neighbors. And above all, once again VOTE!!!

With Deep Affection, Beth

FROM OUR ASSOCIATE MINISTER

Rev. Curtis Peek

STEP UP... into your next level!

And Jesus answered them, saying, "The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified."

John 12:23

For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

1 Corinthians 6:20

Today is your day to dust off your dreams and bring them back to life! Gone are the days of complacency. Gone are the days of fear. Gone are the days of doubt. You have been delayed long enough! God has placed a wonderful purpose within the fabric of your being.

Over the past years, you have been slowly discovering who you are and who Christ has called you to be. Through difficult times, you learned that you are tenacious and that God is an encourager of the weak.

Through joyful times you learned that you are worthy of God's peace and purpose and that God's plan for you is the best plan.

In the fullness of time, you have learned more about yourself in this season than at any other point in your life. You will now understand that Delay is not Denial in the eyes of the Lord.

The delay was necessary for you to continue your growth and development for this moment. You are now ready for your debut.

Believe it! Curtis

GET AMUSED...

Nothing spoils a good story like the arrival of an eyewitness.

~ Mark Twain

AT MY AGE, ROLLING OUT OF BED IN THE MORNING IS THE EASY PART.

GETTING OFF THE FLOOR IS A WHOLE OTHER STORY.

You drop something when you were younger, you just pick it up.

When you're older and you drop something, you stare at it for a bit contemplating if you actually need it anymore.

If a cookie falls on the floor and you pick it up... that's a squat, right?

ELEMENTARY KIDS HAVE IPHONES.
WHEN I WAS A KID, I PUT GLUE ON MY HANDS JUST SO I COULD PEEL IT OFF WHEN IT DRIED.

I don't want to adult anymore. I don't even want to human. I want to goat. Just eat all day and head butt anyone who annoys me.

My super power is holding onto junk for years and throwing it away a week before I need it.

You think you know stress? When I grew up, if you missed a TV show you just missed it. Forever.

A police officer called the station on his radio. "I have an intresting case here. An old lady shot her husband for stepping on the floor she just mopped." "Have you arrested the woman?" Not yet. The floor's still wet.

I don't let my age define me, but the side effects are getting harder to ignore

One thing no one ever talks about when it comes to being an adult, is how much time we debate keeping a cardboard box because it's, you know..... a really good box.

I may not have lost all my marbles yet, but there is a small hole in the bag somewhere.

JANE'S CORNER

images are very real...I am in awe of what is relayed to us here on earth. Each time I see a new image I realize how we are all just specs in the universe. At first that made me feel infinitesimal. But then I realized it's OK to feel that way as God has placed us on this earth as the wow factor to compliment what He created in the universe. God doesn't just wow with the biggest things of His creation, He also wows us with the attention He gives to even the littlest things. As part of God's world, we are gifted the opportunity to pay attention and honor God by doing everything in life with excellence and to putting our best efforts on big projects as well as the ordinary everyday little stuff. As his children, our attention to both the big and small makes a difference! So when you look up in the sky and see the stars and the constellations, be wowed. And also be wowed by a butterfly and a small act of kindness bestowed upon you. Most importantly... BE THE WOW FACTOR!

Remember to take time to be quiet with God! Blessings, Jane

Jane G. Poole, CE Director THE WOW FACTOR

Since NASA began sharing the images, I've been totally wowed by the transmissions from the James Webb Space Telescope. The Galaxy cluster photos that were released in September are mind boggling and astounding. At first glance you might think the pictures can't possibly be real because the images are so clear and the colors so vivid. But as you can see from the photos, the

"Calling all Chimers! Golden West Fair Time!"

Our 72nd Golden West Fair is October 8, 2022, kicking off at 8:00 a.m. with a pancake breakfast and running to at least 4:00 p.m. All members and friends are encouraged to attend the church tradition that is as old as the church itself.

We always need help! Set up in earnest starts October 1st at 9:30 a.m. and runs all the way up to the day of the Fair. We need bakers for the baked goods section; we need wine bottles and other large glassware to be used with our "Break It Booth"; we need donations of all sorts of things: water, soda, better quality household items. And finally we need volunteers all week as well as the day of the Fair—but especially on Saturday, October 1st, Friday, October 7th and Saturday, October 8th. Just show up and we will put you to work.

It's always fun and a great chance to experience fellowship with the church, Join us!

DEACON NEWS

Greg Abbott, Chair

The Deacons will not meet until after the submission deadline so nothing new. We did, for the first time in a long time, help with a post memorial reception for Mary Fussell. It was nice to be a part of this. Looking forward to a busy fall.

Until next time, Greg

Let us not become weary in doing GOOD for we will reap a harvest of BLESSING in due season
if we DO NOT Give Up.

TRUSTEE NEWS

Diane Delaney, Chair

With the help of a $2,000 donation from the Women's Association, we were able to install a brand new dishwasher in the Bower Hall Kitchen just in time to use to help the Country Store prepare for the GWF! Thank you!

And thanks to the DWP Light Replacement Project many of the lights on our campus were replaced. Thank you DWP!

Heal the Bay's Coastal Cleanup Day was held September 17th with The El Porto Beach Cleanup, led by Team IBM, drew 45 volunteers who collected 208 pounds of trash in less than 3 hours! It was a big surfing morning, and several surfers thanked us and even contributed some trash to our buckets that they found while surfing!

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Natalie Karp, Chair

A Busy Time of Year for the COTC Women's Association!

The Bouquet Circle, the 2nd Wednesday of each month (11:30 - 1:00; Dreier Hall), is a wonderful time for us to get together and have fellowship. All ladies of the church, and others outside the church, are welcome! Barbara Downs brings a magical program and puts together a nice array of finger foods, desserts and beverages. So just bring a sandwich if you so desire...and bring a friend too. It will be fun!

We also look forward to our Vespers dinner the 3rd Thursday evening of each month. However for October this will be two days before our semi-annual rummage sale (see below) which is a lot to set up, so most likely we will choose a different date. Please listen for announcements and watch the e-blasts for a date change.

We have a new dishwasher in the Bower Hall kitchen! It's being installed at the time of this publication, and our Women's Association provided a large portion of the money to make this purchase (the old dishwasher had broken down again). So COTC is ready for more fun events!

The Fall Rummage sale will take place on Saturday, Oct. 22. These are always a lot of fun, and the proceeds go to provide educational scholarships for students in need at LAVC and to make minor repairs around campus. If you have any free time to help with this event, we will be setting up the week prior (please contact Louisa and let her know your availability). And we always need volunteers the day of the rummage sale. Thank you in advance!

Looking forward, our Women's Association Boutique will be returning for the first time since before the pandemic, and is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 5. We will have the Women's Crafts sale as well as outside vendors, a Bake Sale, a Raffle Quilt, a Chili Lunch, and hopefully the return of "Santa's Closet" (we're working on that). There will also be entertainment! Barbara Down's nephew's jazz band will provide live music. Hayley's young Circus Performers will delight us with their moves. Look for more details as we get closer to that date!

As I said, this is a busy time of year for our Women's Association!

STAVES CHAPEL ~ STAINED GLASS WINDOWS

Submitted by Joi Staves

From our roots in England to the founding of our Church of the Chimes, the history of Congregationalism is depicted in the Staves' Chapel's stained glass windows. The fourteenth of the Chapel's eighteen stained glass windows is pictured below with a description of its significance, and below it are the thirteen windows that were presented in previous editions of Chiming In.

"14: SPREAD OF MISSIONS TO THE WORLD"

Congregationalists and Presbyterians sponsored an impressive array of voluntary organizations, including some of the earliest on the behalf of foreign missions. Within a few years, the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions (ABCFM) was formed (1810) and sent some of the first American Protestant missionaries to other lands. Quickly following, the American Home Missionary Society (1826), the American Education Society and similar groups began as cooperative efforts with other Protestant churches, but were spearheaded primarily by Congregationalists. "15: WELFARE AND SOCIAL ACTION:" be featured in the November 2022 edition of Chiming In.

13: "Kawaiahao Church"

7: "The First Thanksgiving"	8: "Establishment of Colleges"	9: "Haystack Meeting"	10: "Anti Slavery"	11: "Westward Movement"	12: "Gold Rush Churches"
6: "Mayflower Compact Adopted"	5: "Plymouth Landing"	4: "Mayflower Sails"	3: "Pilgrims in Holland"	2: "The Faithful are Imprisoned"	1: "Robert Browne"

COMMUNITY & WORLD SERVICE NEWS

Robert Dunn, Chair

We will be in Bower Hall, and are asking people to sponsor each well-packed shoebox for just $10 each. Make some child's Christmas special this year!

CROP HUNGER WALK

SFV Crop Walk—It's almost here.

The 2022 SFV Crop Hunger Walk will be held Sunday, October 30. Once again we will not be walking in a large group. As done over the last two years, it will be a virtual / family unit walk; we will walk "together" on that day with our family/friends. Last year the total raised was $14,547. At $7,712, COTC was responsible for more than half of the total. We beat the Northridge United Methodist Church that raised an impressive $5,980. If you are planning to walk, visit the SFV Crop Hunger Walk web site, get signed up and start collecting money. If you are not walking, find someone who is and sponsor them. COTC has been participating for many decades so let's see if we can do even better this year.

RACIAL EQUITY DISCUSSION GROUP

Our Racial Equity Discussion Group just celebrated its two year anniversary! Our first meeting was in September 2020; it included a lively discussion after a video interview with Dr. Bernice King from Central Church in Las Vegas.

We've met almost every month since then, at first via Sunday afternoon Zoom meetings; then just a few months ago we started meeting on the Hamilton House patio during Hospitality time. We've read and discussed books like "Why Are All the Black Children Sitting Together in the Lunch Room", by Beverly Daniel Tatum; we watched a Capstone project video on "Addressing Vaccination Hesitancy in BIPOC Populations" by Delaney Jack (Diane & George's niece), we talked about current events related to racial equity including stopping Asian hate, and we created a diversity statement for our church, "A Diverse and Loving Christian Community Accepting of All", which is on our website and shared each week in our Sunday service. We are proud to be part of Church of the Chimes.

Our attendance has averaged 10 people. All are welcome to join us, you can come and listen or contribute to the discussions, as you feel comfortable. Our next meeting will be on October 2nd at or around 12noon on the Hamilton House patio or at the picnic tables under the trees. If you want to find out more about this group, please contact, Dr. Bingham, Rev. Peek or Diane Delaney. Thank you!

EBBA JOHNSON DEDICATION

Thanks to the diligent efforts of many, on Sunday, September 18th, the Music Room in our Sanctuary Building was dedicated to Ebba Johnson for her long term patronage to our church. Her generosity was significantly felt during the very tenuous times that were experienced over the past months. What a blessing she gave to us. Thank you, Ebba.

A MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

I am so grateful for the prayers and well wishes from my Church Family. A special thanks to Beth, Curtis & Jane for always being there for me. Thanks to everyone who sent flowers, cards, food and the phone calls. It made the cancer journey an easier journey. The Lord answered all our prayers. Thanks with Love, Jan Long PS My dog Teddy wishes to thank John S for the walks.
