

ANIMALS IN WAR AND PEACE 2026 MEDAL CEREMONY

The 6th Animals in War & Peace Medal Ceremony will recognize and honor six unsung animal heroes for their accomplishments in both war and peace in Washington, DC on November 12, 2026. The Medal Ceremony is hosted by the non-profit Angels Without Wings, Inc./Animals in War & Peace, The Livingood Group, and US War Dogs Association and continues the efforts toward a new Congressional medal to underscore America's appreciation of the sacrifices and heroics of our American animals who served our country. Both the Animals in War & Peace Medal of Bravery and the Animals in War & Peace Distinguished Service Medal will be presented in 2026.

The Animals in War & Peace Medal of Bravery will be awarded by Members of Congress to animals that served in past wars (posthumous), and current working or retired military dogs representing U.S. military services, service animals and first responders, for their courage and sacrifice. The Animals in War & Peace Distinguished Service Medal will also be awarded by Members of Congress and presented to animals distinguished by their exceptionally meritorious service to the U.S. in a duty of great responsibility.

When: November 12, 2026 - 5:00PM to 6:30PM

Where: The Foyer Room, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC.
