Debbie and I arrived in the area on January 24th and I began my position as interim pastor on Friday, February 1. We moved without bringing any furniture from our home in Colorado, so we “camped out” in our rental home until we could secure furnishings. A big thank you to the men of the church who came and helped us unload the U-Haul truck and then assemble our most critical pieces (such as our bed!).

To continue the process of the ‘office make-over’ (thank you to the team who also worked that project!), Lynda Marble and I selected new office furniture for the pastor’s study. If you haven’t had a chance to stop by and see the changes, I invite you to do so – it is a remarkable transformation!

So Sunday, February 3rd was my first Sunday to be in the pulpit. Certainly a lot happened that day – “Souper Bowl” Sunday (we collected a large quantity of soup, but I don’t have the numbers...), Communion Sunday and my first Sunday. Following worship the youth of the church hosted a ‘popcorn and cake’ reception. This reception, and your understanding of my muddling through the flow of worship, helped Debbie and I feel so welcomed and accepted. We feel right at home – thanks so much.

Now is the time to begin to settle-in to the rhythm of the congregation and get to know each other. I will be trying my best to learn names, but please help me out if I look confused! It is going to be an exciting and fun time of sharing our faith journeys together as we move toward your next installed pastor. Thanks for inviting us to travel with you.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Bob

THE CHURCH MOUSE

A woman came out of her house and saw 3 old men with long white beards sitting in her front yard. She did not recognize them.

She said, "I don't think I know you, but you must be hungry. Please come in and have something to eat."

"Is the man of the house home?", they asked. "No", she said. "He's out."

"Then we cannot come in", they replied. In the evening when her husband came home, she told him what had happened.

"Go tell them I am home and invite them in!" The woman went out and invited the men in. "We do not go into a House together," they replied.

"Why is that?" she wanted to know. One of the old men explained: "His name is Wealth," he said pointing to one of his friends, and said pointing to another one, "He is Success, and I am Love." Then he added, "Now go in and discuss with your husband which one of us you want in your home."

The woman went in and told her husband what was said. Her husband was overjoyed. "How nice", he said. "Since that is the case, let us invite Wealth. Let him come and fill our home with wealth!"

His wife disagreed. "My dear, why don't we invite Success?"

Their daughter-in-law was listening from the other corner of the house. She jumped in with her own suggestion: "Would it not be better to invite Love? Our home will then be filled with love!"

"Let us heed our daughter-in-law's advice," said the husband to his wife. "Go out and invite Love to be our guest."

The woman went out and asked the 3 old men, "Which one of you is Love? Please come in and be our guest." Love got up and started walking toward the house. The other 2 also got up and followed him. Surprised, the lady asked Wealth and Success: "I only invited Love, Why are you coming in?"

The old men replied together: "If you had invited Wealth or Success, the other two of us would've stayed out, but since you invited Love, wherever He goes, we go with him. Wherever there is Love, there is also Wealth and Success!"

Until next time – be happy, do good deeds, and keep love in your heart.

Love To You All,

Webster

WORSHIP REPORT

After a much-deserved hiatus, the choir is back practicing at 9:15 on Sunday morning. The “Quartet” consisting of Joyce Baldwin, Patsy Hjalmarson, Steve Knutson and Steve Rodney blessed us with special arrangements during January. We especially enjoyed their added accompaniment to our congregational hymns. Thank you. We look forward to more of the same in February.

A special Thank You to Derek Luptak for filling the pulpit with his inspirational sermons. We sincerely appreciate his willingness to always “step up” when we need him. God truly blessed our congregation when He sent Derek and his family to us.

Once again, we are looking for volunteers for Lay Leader, Worship Coordinator and Communion Stewards. Please sign up in the book to the right of the double doors into the Fellowship Hall. Any serving or past deacons and elders who are willing and able to serve communion, please let Loretta Gadbois know.

We are excited for Bob and Debbie Leivers to join us on February 3rd. On behalf of the entire CPC family, we welcome you with open arms.

THANKS A MILLION

To the following people who were so kind to me by sending me get well wishes and calls:

Tom Fink and Martha Cyrus, the Bees, Mary Doane, Donna Staats, the Mullins, Arlene Kerr and Pat Macey whose cards were always the first to arrive. I am very grateful to all. I will probably not see you for awhile since I am moving off the mountain by suggestion of the Doctor. The lower altitude does give me more oxygen thus giving me more strength. I have found a lovely senior living place and hope I adjust quickly and make new friends.

I will continue to pray for CPC and its renewal of faith.

God's blessing on all of you,

Mae Tawoda

Fellowship Report

As the new moderator of Fellowship, I want to thank Steve and Joan Lora for serving on this committee the past 6 years. They did a great job.

I have nicknamed this group the “Party Animals “. We are going to have lots of laughs and good times. Let me know if you’re interested in becoming a Party Animal.

Let’s get this party started!
