"Tonight we gather beneath the Full Buck Moon.

We stand not as strangers...
but as family.

Different paths...
Different experiences...
One Circle.

May our places become sacred.

May our hearts become open.

May our intentions become clear."

Then everyone responds together:

"We enter this Circle in Perfect Love and Perfect Trust."

"Our ancestors watched the forests carefully.
They noticed that during this Moon the young stag began growing new antlers.

Those antlers did not appear overnight.

They grew slowly...
nourished each day...
becoming stronger until they were ready for the seasons ahead.

So too do we.

Growth is seldom sudden.

Wisdom is earned.

Strength is cultivated.

Tonight we honor not only who we are...
but who we are becoming."

Individual Dedications

"Under this Full Buck Moon...

(Harold or Rhonda)

"As the stag grows new antlers...

May we all continue to grow with new wisdom.

As the antlers reach toward the Universe...

May our Spirits also reach higher.

As Nature continually renews herself...

May we never cease striving to reach our highest ideals."

Everyone:

"May we continue to grow."

(Harold or Rhonda)

Circle of Light for the Fires around the world.

"Before we close this sacred Circle, there is one more act we wish to share.

Tonight, our thoughts extend beyond this Circle... beyond our homes... beyond our own community.

Around our world, many people are facing uncertainty. Families have been displaced by devastating wildfires. Brave firefighters and first responders continue their work with courage and sacrifice. Countless animals have lost their habitats, and forests that have stood for generations have been forever changed.

As followers of Earth-centered paths, we recognize that when Nature suffers, we all feel that loss.

Tonight, we invite not only our Coven, but everyone joining us, regardless of your spiritual path or beliefs, to become part of this moment.

If you have a candle, we invite you to light it now.

If you do not have a candle, simply place your hands upon your heart, close your eyes and send positive energy to our Mother Earth, or offer your prayers in whatever way is meaningful to you.

For the next five minutes, let us become one Circle .. sending love where there is fear, hope where there is despair, comfort to those who grieve, strength to those who serve, healing to the wounded, protection to the wildlife, and renewal to the forests and lands that have been harmed.

May our thoughts become kindness.
May our prayers become hope.
May our intentions become healing.

Though we are separated by distance, tonight we stand together beneath the same Moon and beneath the same sky.

Let us now enter this Circle of Light."

Closing

(Coven Members release their Quarters)

(Harold or Rhonda)

"The Moon will continue her journey across the Universe.

We too will continue ours.

May we leave this Circle carrying its light into our homes...
our communities...
and the world.

Though this Circle is opened...
the bonds we share remain unbroken."

Everyone together:

"Merry Meet and Merry Part .. Til We Merry Meet Again...
Blessed Be."
