New MoonCoven Prayer

“We gather as Witches, seekers of wisdom, and keepers of the sacred flame.

From many paths we come, united in spirit, bound by respect, and guided by Perfect Love and Perfect Trust.

We honor the Earth that sustains us, the Divine in its many forms, and the ancestors whose wisdom echoes through the ages.

May our hearts remain open, our words carry truth, and our actions reflect compassion.

May we seek knowledge with humility, wield our Magick with wisdom, and honor the sacred balance of all life.

Let no difference divide us, nor judgment diminish the light within another.

Within this Circle, may we find strength in unity, courage in individuality, and peace in belonging.

As the Wheel turns and the Moon rises each night, may our bonds deepen, our wisdom flourish, and our sacred purpose endure.

Let this gathering be a place of learning,
A sanctuary of fellowship,
And a living testament to the Magick we create together.

As the Moon waxes and wanes,
As the Seasons turn and the years unfold,
May our bonds grow deeper,
Our understanding grow greater,
And our purpose remains true.

As above, so below.

As below, so above.

As within, so without.

As without, so within.

As the universe, so the soul.”
