

Front Doors

Existing front doors that are repainted/restrained should keep the new color in harmony of color and conformity with existing Del Sol Subdivision front doors.

New front door replacements should keep the new style in harmony of design style and conformity with existing Del Sol Subdivision front doors.

Applications must be submitted in advance and in writing, prior to commencing work, to our management company, for approval by our Architectural Control Committee (ACC)