Holly Hill Farm has been operating a riding school, horse show program and summer day camps for many years and operates with the highest standards of safety and professional service. Our school horses as well as all staff members, are currently trained and have proven their reliability over the years in a variety of situations. However, horseback riding is a high risk sport, and an accident could occur and result in serious injury or death to the rider, or horse. Although all precautions are taken, and carefully planned, participation in this sport is completely voluntary and denotes your acceptance of these risks and conditions. By signing below, you are accepting the risks and conditions as listed above.
