

The Meeting has started. Please Silence your cell phones, and refrain from texting.
There is to be no independent conversations.

Agape is a Home Group and open for membership. To make Agape your home group, see the Secretary after the meeting. Agape meetings are open meetings; all visitors are welcome.

There are no dues or fees. In accordance with the 7th Tradition, the basket will be passed during in person meetings. Those attending by Zoom may make contributions via Venmo to @agape-group or by sending checks to P.O. Box 624, Cockeysville MD 21030. You can also use the QR code posted in the coffee room. Contributions are used for rent, literature, coffee, Zoom, and internet costs. Anything left is donated to AA service organizations.

AA approved literature is for sale in the large room; each book includes an envelope for payment. Copies of The Big Book, Daily Reflections and Living Sober are available on the shelf located next to the Secretary's chair. Please put your envelope in the basket when it comes around, or in the safe located in the coffee room.

Agape Group Conscience meetings are held on the 3rd Saturday of each month at 10:30 AM. Our next meetings will be January 20th and February 17th here at the Gibson Building. Please join us.
