

Delaware County, State Assisted Food Pantries

REVISED: October 2025

The County of Delaware, Department of Human Services, Adult and Family Services, has contracted with the Share Food Program (SFP) to coordinate state assisted food pantries in Delaware County. SFP is a leader in the region whose programs lead the fight against food insecurity in Delaware County. SFP serves the County by providing an expansive, quality partner network of community-based organizations and school districts engaged in food distribution, education and advocacy.

The Share Food Program is pleased to serve the community in accordance with USDA civil rights regulations.
