

SAR SHALOM ISRAEL

Shalom,

In less than 24 hours from now, we will all be in transit, heading to Israel. Last week, I responded to a public Facebook posting made by Prime Minister of Israel, Benjamin Netanyahu. I just posted seven words. "stay strong, we are praying for you." However, within a minute, a mysterious person, replied to me "We will kill you." I did report it to Facebook, and they allow me to block it. However, just two days ago, Facebook said it was not in violation with their position for censorship. I did copy all of the content, the gentleman's name, etc., and sent it to the FBI here in Dallas. I am not fearful. However, it shows me the seriousness of our work in Israel. We are all vulnerable. Even a senior citizen who lives in a small town in Texas.

That being said, we all have much anticipation as we travel tomorrow. Over the years, I have seen the importance of prayer. I have seen the strategic purpose of prayer. I've seen the fruit of prayer. I am sure that you have seen the same thing. But you will see our itinerary. We cover prayer! Let's pray now,

Abba Father, in the name of Jesus, in the beautiful name of Yeshua, we thank You for salvation and we thank You for the gift of eternal life. We thank You for the blessing of realizing who our Savior is, we are nothing in His sight. We are so grateful that Jesus paid our price of sin on the cross. Help us to walk in His steps. Help us to surrender our own virtue, our own feelings of self satisfaction, to Your higher call. Thank You for the person reading this newsletter. I thank You that they prayed for us in November and we never even had to go to a bomb shelter. I thank you that these dear saints who receive this newsletter prayed for us in May 2024 and we were safe. Thank you for the prayers, thank You for the incense prayers that go up to You and blesses you. May we bless you! Thank You for the privilege of being able to go to Your land, the promised land and serve the underserved in Israel, for from the very young, the unborn, all the way up to the elderly. We do not consider it a light thing. Thank You for their prayers. I pray this, in the name of Jesus. amen
