Shalom!

Greetings to you from Jerusalem, the city of the great king. Psalm 134:3 -, we bless you from Zion. Thank you so much for praying for us. We feel your prayers. When we arrived in Jerusalem, at bedtime, this announcement came over about the missile aimed for Israel and then a few minutes later, it was intercepted and demolished. No weapon formed against us shall prosper! I really appreciate you praying and we can feel your prayers. Your prayers have sustained us. One of the ladies who lost her passport was able to go to the United States Embassy, complete the paperwork and we went with her to pick it up on Wednesday afternoon. She's such an ambassador for the Lord that even the guard at the Embassy got to hear the good news.

We were able to bring your aid to Sderot, and one wonderful donor gave us $10,000 to give to this congregation, to help them purchase a building. The harassment that they have been getting from the ultra religious in their community is off the meter. Please keep Pastor Micha'el and the group in prayer.

The song says "blessed be the tie that binds our hearts in Jesus, love." thank you for praying for us, your prayers have sustained us, your love has encouraged us through these times of perseverance and endurance. We still are assailed with many trials. Some people do not feel well, another lady fell. Another lady was worried because they canceled her flight. She is needing to get back to the states and yet she didn't have a return flight. Delta cancelled her, as Delta has canceled all flights in and out of Israel currently. She's supposed to fly on ITA airlines to Rome and then Rome to Atlanta by herself. All of these things we ask you for prayer. All of us need Grace in trying to get back to the United States as the situation here in Israel is very volatile. President Trump did announced a truce with Yemen, but that was for the shipping lanes and that was not regarding the danger here in Israel. Please pray, that's all I know what to do is just to ask you to pray. God bless you all. You are the most important element of this charity work."
