GOOD & WELFARE REPORT – Kay Hunter provided the report. A peace lily was sent to La Tonia Simmons on behalf of the branch for the passing of her husband. Expressions of sympathy were also sent on behalf of the branch for Fred Campbell and Dottie Wileman.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT – No report.

IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT’S REPORT – No report.

FINANCIAL REPORT – Donalda Moss shared reports from July and August 2025. Donalda explained that she doesn’t pull intermittent reports because she prefers the shared report to match the statement provided each month from the bank. The interest is earned and shared quarterly.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY REPORT – Theresa Bailey provided the financial secretary report. For July we had 983 members listed and 13 associate members. August indicated 987 members with 12 associate members, due to the death of Fred Campbell.

1st VICE PRESIDENT’S REPORT – Reggie Hughes stated that we had three new supervisors to WDC. Ms. Turner-Anacostia, Nicky Holder, Area Manager Level 2 from New York, and Nicki Horn was detailed to SW. He also stated that he had a 650 mediation earlier in the day, and it did not go very well. The employee has 6 days to appeal.

2nd VICE PRESIDENT’S REPORT – No report.

Darrell Young asked for a report from the crab feast committee. Ray Nowden stated that the crab feast was an overall success. There were a few complaints about the drink tickets, and Ray personally ensured that everyone received a drink-ticket. There was some last-minute menu changes based on food availability. Darrell stated that there were numerous positive reviews, and he complimented Mike and Ray on a job well done. Ray will share the crab feast information at the next meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

The question of who was attending the Capital Atlantic Area cruise advocacy training was raised. The information was not available at the time of the meeting. Marty would have to provide the information.

Lloyd Cox, President of Branch 532, came to the meeting to announce his candidacy for Capital Area Atlantic Vice President, and to request support from Branch 135. Lloyd spoke of his experience and asked that any questions for him be passed along, via Marty or Branch 135 leadership. He also went to the crab feast and complimented the Branch on a great job.

Darrell Young informed the membership that Steve Shawn is also running for AVP.

We were informed that there will be a quarterly meeting on the following Monday with Ms. McLucas, District Manager, and all State of MD presidents. The branch will receive an update at the next meeting.

Kaye was informed that Darrell Young was out recovering from knee surgery.

The meeting adjourned at 7:58 pm.

Respectfully submitted.
