Board of Directors / Minutes Monthly Meeting

August 8, 2026 / 9:00 A.M.

- The cameras at the back boat ramp were discussed. Jamie Groskopf informed the Board of what LCSFibercom has done that would allow cameras to be connected to the fiber he put in place. Permission still needs to be obtained from the 980 N. Volunteer Fire Department to use their resources to help to set this up correctly and move forward. John Meehan and Jim Maraist will obtain prices for cameras to present at the September meeting.
- The damage to the pavilion at the back boat ramp was discussed. Prices will be obtained to repair the damage and will be discussed again at the September meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

- Changes to the authorized signers on the SJC Lakeside Village POA checking and savings accounts are needed. Jim Maraist made a motion to remove Gail Miller, Petie Grant, Fay Earls, and Ann Young and to add Steve Null, Jerry Wainscott and Marcy Metz. Mandy Smith will remain as is. Fay Earls seconded the motion. Motion carried unanimously.
- The need to purchase a folding machine for the property owners association was presented. Fay Earls made a motion to approve up to $1200 to purchase a folding machine with an extended warranty. Raymond McCann seconded the motion. Motion carried unanimously.
- Non-Board members volunteering for committees was discussed. The only restriction is to the Architectural Review Committee. All other committees it is up to the chairman of the committees to solicit help if needed. A motion was made by Jim Maraist that a non-Board member may be appointed to a committee only if they are a property owner in good standing and a non-disclosure agreement is signed. Danny Washington seconded the motion. Motion carried with only one member opposing the motion.
- The General Liability Insurance Policy renewal was presented to the Board. The renewal amount is $3,077.47. Jim made a motion to approve the renewal of the policy. Darin Smith seconded the motion. Motion carried unanimously.
- The lock at the back boat ramp was replaced due to it being broken. The cost was $476.57.
- Open discussion by Board members was had. Jim Maraist needed to know where in the laws it stated that an item needs to be on the Agenda to be voted on. The POA website was also discussed with changes that can be made.
