

COACH EMILY B.

Coach Emily B. is a graduate of Johnson HS . She loves music and photography, participates in band and yearbook at school, and loves to hang out with friends and be outside during her free time. Coach Emily B. swam on swim team throughout her elementary years, and has been teaching lessons now for several years. She looks forward to spending this summer in the water and seeing kids learn about water safety. Her goal is for her students to feel safe and comfortable enough to be in the water and have fun while swimming. Coach Emily B. is available for private lessons.
