

COACH ANDRES

Coach Andres is a senior and a PAL at Johnson HS, and he has grown up in San Antonio with his parents, two brothers, and golden retrievers. He started swimming before he was 2 years old, and he competed in club and summer swim for 10 years. Last summer, he was a lifeguard at Encino Park. When he is not at school or working, he enjoys playing basketball, soccer, ultimate Frisbee, hiking, biking, going to concerts, and playing video games! In the fall, he will be attending the University of Texas at Austin, studying at the McCombs School of Business. Coach Andres is looking forward to teaching kids an important skill that can benefit them the rest of their lives while also having fun! Coach Andres is available for private lessons.
