

COACH JACK

Coach Jack is a senior at Johnson HS, and he has grown up in San Antonio with his family. He has been a lifeguard for the past three years. In the fall, he will be attending the University of Houston. Coach Jack is excited for the change to teach swimming lessons this summer! He looks forward to helping kids gain confidence in their swimming abilities in the water. Coach Jack is available for private lessons!