

My name is Isabel van Dierendonck. The CIA came into my life, and what resulted from that touches on the Covid vaccine and what it does to the human body. I also have proof that so-called "reptilians" really exist. I think my life is in danger and I want to make the information I have public. Below I describe briefly what happened and what I know, a longer version can be found in the links on Dropbox and Pcloud in the "Explanation" ("Uitleg") folder.

The start of my story is as follows: the CIA got involved with me after I discovered things about Angelina Jolie. She triggered me somehow, and she was unavoidable because she was constantly and everywhere in the news. What I discovered was that she and her partner were committing massive fraud on their charities. Particularly with Make it Right, this was and is very easy to prove on the basis of the tax returns: 100 million dollars has disappeared and the same company that filed the returns also did the audits over them.

Then my computer was hacked and things happened online that I only consider possible if an organization that is administrator of all sites were behind it. All my websites, user accounts, operating systems and devices are no longer the original ones; I'm in a test version everywhere. I can also show this very easily. I now think Jolie is a CIA mule. There were already rumors about this and it is supported by the fact that she was in the CIA building itself where she met the director: no official reason was given for this. A CIA mule transports drugs and weapons for the CIA. There have been longstanding rumors that the CIA smuggles drugs and using the money for black ops. A plane carrying drugs that crashed belonged to the CIA.

There are several reasons I couldn't get rid of the CIA after that. The first one is that my Chrome synced with their server and that allowed me to see which website they were running (all of them, that is); I could tell it was something that wasn't supposed to exist in Chrome. They were unable to solve this.

They then also hacked my body, which can now be done by the vaccine. I now think that they had no intention of harming me at the time, but it made me panick so much that I tried to go public and seek help to free myself. However, this has not yet been successful because so many influential "people" (reptilians, it has now become apparent) are involved, all media are corrupt and in their hands and the bodies controlling the government are part of that government.

Then came the vaccine. This causes your body to possibly be controlled remotely by others, and by that I mean all bodily functions: heart rate, blood circulation, nerves, muscles. For those who think this is impossible, all of these things are indeed possible and have been for a long time. The information about this is public, just not generally known. In my opinion, you can question the emergence and control of the Corona virus with its extremely low mortality and only for the elderly and the very weak.

Finally I found out about the existence of reptilians. These are beings that can take another form and pretend to be human but are not; shapeshifters. I had a lot of trouble believing this, but I now have so much evidence for it that it cannot be denied: a human being who temporarily has non-human physical properties is not human. They are called reptilians because in their true form they have characteristics of a reptile. These beings are highly intelligent and they form a large part of the elite on earth: they are almost all politicians, celebrities, royal families, doctors, journalists and media, lawyers, business people, notaries, police, and judges. They are behind the Covid vaccine, which makes people who have this vaccine in their bodies remotely controllable in all respects.

My story about the Corona vaccine differs from that of others because I have rock solid proof that all my websites, accounts, operating systems and browsers are not the original ones and I am everywhere in the administrator menu of those websites. So what I can add is the fact that I can prove that I am dealing with the CIA: that makes my story gain strength. I have a lot of evidence for this, I just can't get it published.

I now know so much, and I have so much evidence, that they are trying to kill me in all kinds of ways. This can be done in a way that will appear to be a natural cause of death.

Therefore, I have uploaded what evidence I have to the Cloud on two sites. There is a separate folder with written explanation. Of these, "Per site" is the most important, in which I describe the most important things per account and site that are not correct for me and explain how the vaccine exactly works and go into more detail about the reptilians. The files themselves are located in the "Summary" ("Samenvatting") and "Summary of the Summary" ("Samenvatting van de Samenvatting") folders. In "Sorting saved files per folder" ("Sortering opgeslagen bestanden per map") you can find where almost everything can be found.

If you want to download this, I recommend putting everything on an external hard drive or SD. My apologies that some things are not always placed logically or even saved twice and that it is so much.
