Bambaata Survivor Ron Savage Breaks Silence On Shocking Encounter

Ron Savage sends a public apology to the Hip Hop Museum for the actions and accusations against Bambaata and Zulu Nation. "I have nothing against the two."

According to Ron Savage, Lelia Wills slammed media with slanders and accused Ron of attempting to jeopardize her YouTube channel as well as her film The Zulu Nation: The First Gay Family Of Hip Hop. The harassment by Lelia stems from Ron not wanting to partake in the agenda that Bambaata sex trafficked him across state lines. Star, a media figure also harassing Ron, was captured on audio threatening him and stating on YouTube, "Bambaata is it molestation or gay love gone wrong"?

Word got around that Ron Savage was set to perform for First Dime Booking at the Hip Hop Museum. Lelia Wills once again barraged the press and media and took too her YouTube channel to continue her slander, which shocked all parties as the event Ron was performing at was not a Zulu Nation event. Ron recapped, "Lelia Wills was adamant about her statement suggesting anyone in support of Bambaata or Zulu Nation are pedophiles."

"This was an event by First Dime Booking to showcase musical talents within the communities."

“I want again, to apologize to the Hip Hop Museum and First Dime Booking for the unfortunate attempts by others to defame a night sought out to celebrate others.”
