

Behold the King

Andy Gleiser

IRONGATE

Greg Habegger

1. Be - hold the King in ti - ny in - fan - cy As Ma - gi fell be - fore His maj - es - ty.
2. Be - hold the King in blood - y pag - eant - ry; A worth - less crown to scorn His roy - al - ty.
3. Be - hold the King in true hu - mil - i - ty, A - bused by men up - on that curs - ed tree.
4. Be - hold the King for all e - ter - ni - ty En - throned on high in to - tal sov' - reign - ty.

The time had come for Da - vid's promised Heir To free us from the grip of Sa - tan's snare.
In Pi - late's hall He claimed no earth - ly throne; He reigned su - preme as Lord in hearts a - lone.
He would en - dure the dark - ness of our shame To die our death and mag - ni - fy His name.
He en - ter - tains no ri - val to His crown; The world is His! All praise to Him re - sound!

So we will bow be - fore our wor - thy King, And we will vow to give Him ev - 'ry - thing. We take our cross and fol - low all our days; We wor - ship Him with lives of grate - ful praise. We will live for Christ the King.