

A Revival Prayer

(Come Down, O Lord)

Andy Gleiser

Josh Sparkman (ASCAP)

1. Come down, O Lord, and split the skies; Come make the mountains quake. You are the
2. days no one has heard Nor seen a God like You, A God who
3. We are like one who is un-clean; Self-righteous deeds pol-lute. We fade a-4. tin-ued long in sin, Will You reach down to save? You are the 5. Re-mem-ber not our former sins; Hold back what we are due. We are the fire that kin-dles us, That makes the god-less shake. From an-cient acts on our be-half, A God who's on the move.

way just like a leaf, A-drift and des-ti-tute. We have con-Pot-ter of our lives, Come now re-shape Your clay. Come peo-ple of Your name; Re-turn us back to You!

down, O Lord, and rend our hearts; Come down, O Lord, re-vive! We rouse our-selves— take hold of You; Come down and show us Christ!