

My Refuge in a Thousand Ways

D Asus Bm G2

D Asus G D Bm7 D/F# G

1. You are the One be - fore all time, The Great I Am, the God Most High;
 2. The blood You spilled at Cal - va - ry Has drowned a - way sin's tyr - an - ny;
 3. Un - wea - ried arms be - neath me now Up - hold me when I'm sink - ing down;
 4. Why should I ev - er be a - fraid? You are my home and dwell - ing place.

D Asus G D/F# Em7 D/F# Asus D G/D D

Un - chang - ing and un - change - a - ble, The Rock on which I rest my soul.
 Oh it dis - solved my i - ron chains And washed me clean from ev - 'ry stain.
 When sor - row bends me to its will, Your reach ex - tends much deep - er still.
 As You have been so You will be My shel - ter for e - ter - ni - ty.

/C# Bm G D A/C# Bm

But oh, Your love! Your stead - fast love! I cling to You, no oth - er one.
 Though Sa - tan roars to ru - in me, O might - y Christ, You hold his leash.
 You've known my depths, You've tast - ed grief, You are my strength when I am weak.
 Come quick - ly, Lord, col - lect Your own; I look for You, my bless - ed hope!

D/F# G A Bm G D/F# Asus Bm

You are the God from age to age, My re - fuge in a thous - and ways;
 No lie can shake me from Your grace, My re - fuge in a thous - and ways;
 You catch my tears and hold me safe, My re - fuge in a thous - and ways;
 You are the God I'll ev - er praise, My re - fuge in a thous - and ways;

Em7 D/F# Asus 1-3. D 4. D

My re - fuge in a thous - and ways.
 My re - fuge in a thous - and ways.
 My re - fuge in a thous - and ways.
 My re - fuge in a thous - and ways.