Greetings, Brothers & Sisters in Christ!

The month of February has lots of celebrations! Some may be familiar and some may not. February 1st is National Freedom Day, the 2nd Groundhog Day, the 12th Abraham Lincoln's birthday, the 14th Valentine's Day, 16th is the beginning of Brotherhood/Sisterhood Week, the 17th is President's Day, and the 22nd is George Washington's birthday. And this year, Ash Wednesday, which normally happens at the end of February, doesn't occur until March 5, which makes Easter a bit later also, on April 20th. February is also Black History month. I'm sure Valentine's Day is the day February is best known for and draws the most attention and dollars!

We usually think of the theme of "love" for Valentine's Day, but also as the overall theme for the whole month of February. As I was thinking about how to love as God commands, I found an article written by Scott Hubbard, the managing editor of "Desiring God." His article is titled "The Art of One-Anothering: How the Church Loves Like Christ." He begins the article by saying how holy he feels while doing his morning devotions, close to God and alone in his room. But when he leaves and begins to interact with "others" face to face, he finds he struggles with being "holy." But sadly, he states, "True holiness may begin between God and soul, but it finds full expression in the community with other people – other wonderful, glorious, frustrating, and sometimes offensive people." He tells us, that's why the New Testament describes the authentic holy life using two simple words: "one another." "Around fifty times in the New Testament, Jesus and the apostles tell us to feel, say or do something to "one another." We are to care for one another, bear with one another, honor one another, sing to one another, do good to one another and forgive one another. And there is the grand, overarching, most-repeated one-another: the command that binds everything together in perfect harmony to "love one another."

As we reflect, meditate and pray about how we are to show the kind of love God commands, let us remember that God had a vision of a kingdom where everyone would get along and all humans and creatures would have a life of love and harmony living together. It didn't work out in the Garden of Eden with Adam and Eve, or later with Cain and Abel, and in many other stories and centuries following. But God sent Jesus to give us an example of how to love one another. It included sacrifice, humility, gentleness, generosity, being peacemakers and offering forgiveness, being kind and showing compassion. Hubbard ends his article with these words: "Therefore, Christians walking in the mindset of 'one-anothers' not only have Christ's mind, offer his welcome, speak his words, show his love and give his grace. They also advance his mission." That is what we are called to do in this month of "loving one another" and every day!

Jesus said: A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; just as I have loved you. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another. John 13:34-35

Happy Valentine's Day!

Resolutions That Will Strengthen Your Faith

In case you are a little behind in setting your resolutions for 2025, here are 10 resolutions that will strengthen your faith By Laura Buchanan from UM Communications:

DEEPEN DISCIPLESHIP:

Commit to reading your Bible. The reassurance found in Scripture can only be discovered by setting aside time to study and better understand God’s word. As you read, pay close attention to what God is teaching you, and consider what calling God has for your life.

Pray more often. If you pray rarely, start by praying at least once each day. If your prayer life needs enlivened, explore new prayer practices, such as breath prayers. Finding ways to incorporate prayer into your daily routines will help it become a central point of your faith.

Attend church services regularly. If you need a church home, search for nearby United Methodist congregations on Find-A-Church. If you are a member at a church but haven’t been attending consistently, go! Connecting with others and participating in worship are vital parts of a growing faith, whether in-person or online.

Join a small group. This might be a Sunday School class, a community group organized by your church or a Bible study fellowship. Investing in others and building friendships can strengthen your mental and spiritual health. Additionally, you’ll be able to share thoughts, beliefs and questions with other Christians who are also on a journey of faith.

GET CREATIVE

- Write in a journal. Capture thoughts about life and God. Putting pen to paper helps us unload whatever mental weight we are carrying and often brings a new perspective. This can be diary-style writing, but you can also write down prayers, poems or a fictional short story that helps you express your emotions and spiritual outlook.

- Create something beautiful. This could be anything from a pencil sketch in the margin of a piece of paper, to a scrapbook page, to a knitted scarf. Using your creativity unlocks your right-brain thinking and helps us tap into new ideas, find calm and let go of anxiety.

Make a joyful noise. Listen to uplifting, worshipful music that stirs your soul and sing along. It doesn’t matter if you are the best or the worst singer – lifting your voice in praise to God is an important part of soul-care. Join in congregational singing with a bit more gusto, or simply sing to the heavens while you are stuck in traffic.

BE PRESENT

- Volunteer in the community. No matter where you live, churches and nonprofit organizations are always in need of helping hands. Find a cause that excites you and consider how you can get involved. This could be a food bank, an animal shelter or an afterschool program, or you can simply ask a neighbor in need how you can help them.

- Reach out to those you love. Life can be short and is full of the unexpected. Make a promise to yourself and those you hold dear that you will be present, engaged and devoted to your relationships. Attend activities that are meaningful to your friends and family members. Mend past brokenness. Make an effort to call, text and email people you haven’t heard from in a while.

Invite someone to church. There are many people who are seeking deeper meaning in life but are unsure about visiting a church. Think of coworkers, neighbors, friends and family members that are yearning for a loving community in which to grow and find support. Invite them to join you for a worship service or a church event where they can meet members of the congregation.
