

Jools Holland says: "She has a fantastic voice - her band makes me want to dance... they have that magical element which it's almost impossible to put your finger on!" With her ebullient blend of vintage ukulele jazz and blues-infused Retro-Pop Swing originals, Sara's music breaks boundaries. Her album Boy Next Door, released on Purring Records and played on BBC Radio 2, is a breath of fresh air.

New Age Vintage Nightingale

With her eye on tomorrow's acoustic music, and her roots in the music of the past, Sara Spade's magical melodies and charisma pour off the stage.

Whether playing solo or backed by her singing 'Noisy Boys', Sara really stands apart from the crowd with her own songs. Jools Holland agrees and invited Sara Spade & The Noisy Boys to open his Viva La Diva festival in Canary Wharf.

Boy Next Door sees Sara's own songs next to Charlestons like "Five Foot Two, Eyes of Blue" and heart-melting ballads like "Secret Love". Her retro-pop hit "Beautiful" caught the ear of Radio 1 DJ Rob Da Bank and led to headline festival spots and five star reviews.

Sara has uplifted audiences of thousands across the age spectrum, from youthful Camp Bestival to a WW2 reunion party at Birmingham City Hall and, much to her delight, a small but perfectly formed audience including the legendary guitarist Hank Marvin, who raved;

"If you haven't heard and seen Sara Spade & The Noisy Boys you haven't lived – HEAR THEM! SEE THEM! ASAP!"
