

Jonny Gee (double bass) is principal bass for The London Studio Players & co-principal for Sir Roger Norrington's Southern Sinfonia & The NSO. He loves jazz, baroque, world & chamber music.

His performance credits include: Ravi Shankar, The 16, Dame Cleo Laine, Antonio Forcione, La Mariposa Tango, Hayley Westenra, ETO, Joanna Eden & Sam Smith, The Rock'n'Roll Society, King Salsa & Orphy Robinson (in Jonny's free-impro quartet "Ping Machine").

In 2013 – with Radio3 artist Ruthie Culver – his Utter:Jazz quartet toured modern jazz versions of Britten's WH Auden songs (including here in The Lakes) with Sir Derek Jacobi, Sam West & Roger Lloyd-Pack & their other band The Jazzberries have entertained at 10 Downing Street & Elton John's "White Tie & Tiara Ball".

He also teaches kids, students & music teachers and coaches some international soloists (including Wigmore artists Thom Gould & Ana-Maria Vera).

Jonny cycles, swims all year round in Highgate Ponds and – for a bit of silence – practises freediving & Tai Qi.
