

Mother Clelia Morning Star High School Mission Statement

“Mother Clelia Morning Star High School provides a faith-filled, Catholic education to students with special needs in the Pensacola community. By serving students with love and support, we prepare them for independence and success after high school.”

Our School

Mother Clelia Morning Star High School is a Catholic secondary school owned and operated by the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee. Established in 2020 on the west side of Pensacola, Mother Clelia Morning Star High School is a sister school to Pensacola Catholic High School. This educational institution offers a unique program for students with exceptional needs by preparing them for adulthood transition. Our students take a full course load of 6 high school classes on Florida Access Point Standards, with the opportunity for inclusion classes at Catholic High School.

Admission Eligibility

Mother Clelia Morning Star High School provides support services to students who qualify for accommodations in the standard curriculum due to a specific learning difficulty or an identified disability.
