

LIFE ON THE CIRCLE

The Circle Lofts site plan is a study in intentional design, with homes arranged along a sweeping architectural arc that frames the community pool and creates protected sightlines throughout. This thoughtful layout ensures every residence enjoys curated views into the interior of the community while maintaining privacy, natural light, and a strong sense of place—blending architectural drama with everyday livability.

