

Historic meets Modern

At The Willo, you experience something truly rare—new homes that feel right at home among historic Tudor, Craftsman, Spanish Colonial, and Ranch styles that define Willo’s identity. These residences pay homage to the architectural legacy of the neighborhood while infusing sophisticated contemporary design, finishes, and floor plans. What’s brand new here still feels timeless.

Unmatched Urban

Willo Historic District is one of Phoenix’s most desirable and highly walkable neighborhoods, renowned for its pedestrian-friendly streets, bike access, and proximity to light rail and downtown destinations. From museums and parks to cafés, nightlife, dining, and cultural venues, everything you love about urban living is right at your doorstep.

Community

More than a location, Willo is a neighborhood with soul. Tree-lined streets, community events like the annual Home Tour, and a strong sense of pride among neighbors make daily life feel connected and engaging. With direct bike routes, reliable transit options, and access to Phoenix’s growing network of amenities, life here is both vibrant and beautifully balanced.
