

ST. ANDREW, APOSTLE
NOVEMBER 30

Andrew, born in Bethsaida, was first a disciple of John the Baptist, then later followed Christ. He also introduced Jesus to His brother Peter. He and Philip were the ones that took before Jesus some Greeks. Andrew was the one who let Jesus know a boy had some fish and loaves of bread. According to tradition, after Pentecost, he preached the Gospel in many regions and was crucified in Acaya.

Oh good cross,
who was made beautiful
by the members of the Lord,
so many times desired,
solicited and wanted,
searched for without rest and with ardent desire prepared!

Receive me from among men and take me to my Master,
so that for you He may
receive me,
He who redeemed me
for you dying.

Amén

Instructions: Fold a paper in three. While folded, cut arch at top. Color, cut, and glue the picture in the middle panel, and words on side panels. Decorate the arches.

