Jesus calls the first disciples

One day Jesus was standing on the shore of Lake Gennesaret while the people pushed their way up to him to listen to the word of God.

He saw two boats pulled up on the beach; the fishermen had left them and were washing the nets. Jesus got into one of the boats it belonged to Simon and asked him to push off a little from the shore. Jesus sat in the boat and taught the crowd. When he finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Push the boat out further to the deep water, and you and your partners let down your nets for a catch." "Master," Simon answered, "We worked hard all night long and caught nothing. But if you say so, I will let down the nets." They let them down and caught such a large number of fish that the nets were about to break. So they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats so full of fish that the boats were about to sink. When Simon Peter saw what had happened, he fell on his knees before Jesus and said, "Go away from me, Lord! I am a sinful man!" He and the others with him were all amazed at the large number of fish they had caught. The same was true of Simon's partners, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." They pulled the boats up on the beach, left everything, and followed Jesus. (Luke 5, 1-11)

Reflection

In the gospel of this week we see how Peter and his companions fished all night, but it was in vain. Still they trusted Jesus' word and cast their nets again. The outcome of our efforts lies in our faith and trust in Jesus. Have you ever been trying something for a long time and nothing works. Would you trust in Jesus and try one more time? What do you say to Jesus when he tells you to try again? Jesus tells you not to get discouraged when your efforts seem to be useless. He has given you the ability to do good and beautiful things for yourself and for others. Are you trying to do something good for yourself or others? Share.

Activity

Bring to the group a basket with different types of fishes, cut from cardboard. Give two to each child. Ask them to write in one of them what they want to achieve and in the other the things in which you need Jesus' help to achieve it. Share and then every one place their fish in the basket, that has been placed in the altar. As they place them they said: "Jesus, I will do what you want me to do."

Prayer

Jesus, you are the light of the nations. Sometimes we get discouraged when we are trying to achieve something and does not work. Help us to always have faith in you remembering all the times you have helped us. Teach us perseverance when we try to do good for others, knowing that you are always with us. Amen

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 14, 2010

Readings: Jeremiah 17, 5-8; Psalm 1, 1-6; 1 Corinthians 15, 12. 16-20; Luke 6, 17. 20-26

Happiness and sorrow

When Jesus had come down from the hill with the apostles, he stood on a level place with a large number of his disciples. A large crowd of people was there from all over Judea and from Jerusalem and from the coast cities of Tyre and Sidon; Jesus looked at his disciples and said, “Happy are you poor; the kingdom of God is yours!

“Happy are you who are hungry now; you will be filled!

“Happy are you who weep now; you will laugh!

“Happy are you when people hate you, reject you, insult you, and say that you are evil, all because of the Son of Man! Be glad when that happens and dance for joy, because a great reward is kept for you in heaven. For their ancestors did the very same things to the prophets.

“But how terrible for you who are rich now; you have had your easy life!

“How terrible for you who are full now; you will go hungry!

“How terrible for you who laugh now; you will mourn and weep!

“How terrible when all people speak well of you; their ancestors said the very same things about the false prophets. (Luke 6, 17.20-26)

Reflection

Imagine that you are listening to Jesus. How do you feel about what he is saying? Do you want him to know how you are feeling that is better to have lots of money and never suffer? Would you laugh at what Jesus is saying? Do you seem to be materialistic? What do they think about the messages of the commercials on TV? Which one you like best? Do you believe that owning these advertised products will make you happier? What are the most prized possession at home that you will not want to loose? Every thing you have is a gift from God. Do you thank God every day for the many good things you have received? Have you ever been rejected or made fun of because you were doing something good? How did that make you feel? Share.

Activity

Find out what need is there in the parish and make an activity in which the children can help .Example : Prepare food for homeless, collect clothes or visit sick friends.

Prayer

Lord, Holy Father, we know that everything good we have comes from you. Help us so that riches and money never become our gods, but rather ways to bring happiness to others. Amen

Lent: Time to return to God

Make certain you do not perform your religion duties in public, so that people will see what you do. If you do these things publicly, you will not have a reward from your Father in heaven.

So when you give something to a needy person, do not make a big show of it, as the hypocrites do in the houses of worship and on the streets. They do it so that people will praise them. I assure you, they have already been paid in full. But when you help a needy person, do it in such a way that even your closest friend will not know about it. Then it will be a private matter. And your Father, who sees what you do in private, will reward you.

When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites! They love to stand up and pray in houses of worship and on the street corners, so that everyone will see them. I assure you, they have already been paid in full. But when you pray, go to your room, close the door, and pray to your Father who is unseen. And your Father, who sees what you do in private will reward you.

And when you fast, do not put on a sad face as the hypocrites do. They neglect their appearance so that everyone will see that they are fasting. I assure you, they have already been paid in full. When you go without food, wash your face and comb your hair, so that others cannot know that you are fasting, only your Father, who is unseen, will know. And you Father, who sees what you do in private, will reward you.

(Mathew 6,1-6,16-18)

Reflection

The Lenten practices (prayer, fasting, and almsgiving) are expressions of our desire to draw closer to God, and not reasons to brag about our goodness.

Jesus says that more important than what people do or give up for Lent is what they do because they love God and God loves them. What do you think would please Jesus that you could do this Lent?

Share what each one would offer.

Activity

Prepare a money –box for each child. Ask them to place in it some of the money they receive from their parents for food or something you wanted to have. In this way you will offer a sacrifice to Jesus of something you wanted to have. At the end of Lent give it as a group to the needy children.

Prayer

Lord, these ashes remind us of our origin on earth and our destiny, which is you. Rekindle our fire, our love for you and one another, and lead us to a new life of love, affection, compassion and forgiveness. Amen

A Time to Grow and Change

During Lent we get ready for Easter.
We try to do more things that show
we love God and others.

Trace around the dotted lines and see the surprise.
Color the surprise.,
The caterpillar has a new life

Follow the numbers.
Color a caterpillar or a leaf each day you
do something to show your love.

Ash
Wednesday

Watch the caterpillar grow and change.
We can change too.
We can grow to be more like Jesus during Lent.

The Temptations of Jesus

Jesus returned from the Jordan full of the Holy Spirit and was led by the Spirit into the desert, where he was tempted by the Devil for forty days, in all that time he ate nothing, so that he was hungry when it was over.

The Devil said to him, "If you God's Son, order this stone to turn into bread." But Jesus answered, "The Scripture says, "Human beings cannot live on bread alone." Then the Devil took him up and showed him in a second all the kingdoms of the world. "I will give you all this power and all this wealth," the Devil told him. "It has been handed over to me, and I can give to anyone I choose. All this will be yours, then, if you worship me."

Jesus answered, "The Scripture says, worship the Lord your God and serve only him!" Then the Devil took him to Jerusalem and set him on the highest point of the Temple, and said to him. "If you are God's Son, throw yourself down from here. For the Scripture says, God will order his angels to take good care of you. It also says, "they will hold you up with their hands so that not even your feet will be hurt on the stones." But Jesus answered. "The Scripture says, Do not put the Lord your God to the test." When the Devil finished tempting Jesus in every way, he left him for a while.

Reflection

Jesus refuses to act against God:

to seek material things and power.

Do you sometimes feel tempted to do things that deep in your heart you know are not good?(lies, disobedience, fights, not studying) Tell Jesus what would help you to resist temptation. Tell him what you would like to do this week.(Help instead of bossing my younger siblings, give up something I like but do not need)

Share

Activity

Ask the children to act the story of the gospel.

What does the devil say to them?

What does he promise? How do they respond?

Prayer

Lord, sometimes we get side tracked and think that the only thing we need to be happy is money or power. We sometimes forget that everything comes from you. Help us to be with you this Lent, knowing that you alone are our God. Amen

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

First Sunday of Lent
Deuteronomy 26: 4-10 Psalm 90
Romans 10:8-13 Luke 4: 1-13

Very High Mountain

After forty days and night without food., Jesus was hungry,
The Devil come to Him and said:

1. The Devil come to Him and said "If you are God's Son, order these stones to turn into bread"
2. The Devil took Jesus to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in all their greatness. "All this I will give you", the Devil said, "IF you kneel down and worship me".
3. The Devil took Jesus to Jerusalem, set Him on the highest point of the Temple, and said "If you are God's Son, throw yourself down: ..."

Readings: Genesis 15, 5-12.17-18 Psalm 261.7-9.13-14 Philippians 3, 17-4, 1 Luke 9, 28b-36

The Transfiguration

About a week after he had said these things, Jesus took Peter, John, and James with him and went up a hill to pray. While he was praying, his face changed its appearance, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly two men were there talking with him. They were Moses and Elijah, who appeared in heavenly glory and talked with Jesus about the way in which he would soon fulfill God's purpose by dying in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions were sound asleep, but they woke up and saw Jesus glory and the two men who were standing with him.

As the men were leaving Jesus, Peter said to him, "Master, how good it is that we are here! We will make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." (He did not really know what he was saying.) While he was still speaking, a cloud appeared and covered them with its shadow; and the disciples were afraid as the cloud came over them. A voice said from the cloud, "This is my Son, whom I have chosen listen to him!" When the voice stopped, there was Jesus all alone. The disciples kept quiet about all this and told no one at that time anything they had seen.

(Luke 9, 28b-36)

Reflection

In the readings of this week we can see how Abraham trusted in God's promises and God was pleased with him.

Saint Paul reminds us that we must keep our faith, as we live with the difficulties and struggles of this life.

The scene of the Transfiguration gives us a glimpse of our final destiny, but first we must experience suffering as Jesus did. Jesus offers a life of service, sharing, and loving, loving even our enemies and people we don't like.

What special moments with your family or friends will you sometimes want to freeze and stay there? How do these good experiences help you to go through other more difficult moments? What makes them happy?

Activity

Bring blank paper to the group. Ask the children to draw or write in them things or events that make them happy. As they finish let them share.

Prayer

Jesus, sometimes it is difficult to see you in the midst of the difficulties in our lives. Help us to have hope, to see you in moments of happiness, and to see your glory in the goodness of the members of our family and friends. Amen

Wheel of Hope

Jesus said many times that he is with us when we need him. We can always have hope in him.

Cut out the wheel and the heart. At the + mark, fasten the Heart of Hope to the Wheel of Hope with a brad.

When you feel hopeless, turn the Heart of Hope to the point where you are: worried, afraid, hurt or lonely. Read the words that the Heart of Jesus speaks to your heart!

WORRIED

DO NOT WORRY,
I WILL TAKE CARE OF YOU.
I LOVE
YOU

I AM ALWAYS WITH
YOU... I AM
YOUR BEST FRIEND!

AFRAID

DO NOT BE AFRAID.
I, MYSELF, WILL PROTECT
YOU.

HURT

ST. BERNADETTE

The miracle of Lourdes

Sr. Michelle, S.H.M.

Bernadette Soubirous, the oldest of four children, was born in Lourdes, France, in 1844. In 1856, her family had to move to Rue du Bourg, "Lourdes' prison", a terrible and very poor place, because they couldn't pay their debts.

Daddy, where are we? This place is so dark...

This is our home, Bernadette... May God protect us!

Bernadette was a virtuous and responsible young lady. Yet she had a lot of difficulties studying, so much so that she could not receive her first communion until she was 14 years old. On February 11, 1858, something extraordinary happened that would change her life forever...

Girls, you may go out to gather wood for the fire.

Bernadette stayed behind, because she was sick. When they got ready to cross the river, a strong wind began to blow and, all of a sudden, she saw a golden cloud and a beautiful Lady standing on a rose bush.

Soon, the whole town heard about what had happened. People came in large groups to the grotto and they all wanted to know what was going on. Many of them believed; others didn't.

The authorities of the town tried to put an end to all of this, but they couldn't. The people did not only go to see the apparitions. During one of the celestial visits, a spring broke forth from the grotto, whose water cured many people that were ill.

Bernadette was seriously interrogated and doctors performed tests on her during the ecstasies. They were never able to find a natural explanation.

This can't be! She was being burnt and it didn't hurt her!

Where are you going?

To the water at Lourdes so that he can be cured.

The parish priest asked Bernadette to ask the Lady who she was. In spite of the many difficulties, Bernadette remained faithful to her promise to go to the grotto, and during the 16th apparition, the vision revealed her name.

Soon after, the visions ceased. Bernadette had fulfilled her mission as the Blessed Virgin Mary's spokeswoman. Finally, the parish priest decided to carry out what the Blessed Virgin had asked: for a chapel to be built in Her honor.

A few years afterwards, Bernadette entered into the Congregation of the Sisters of Charity in Nevers, France. As soon as she arrived, her superiors made her tell her experiences of the visions in front of all of the sisters. From then on, she never spoke about the events that took place in Lourdes.

Bernadette was simple, cheerful and humble.

Bernadette, could you tell us about how the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to you in Lourdes?

However, soon she became very ill.

Blessed Virgin Mary, I offer all of this up to you. You did not promise me happiness in this life, but in eternal life...

Today, thousands of people make pilgrimages to Lourdes asking the Blessed Virgin for favors. Don't worry if you can't go on a pilgrimage to Lourdes. You can speak to her from where you are.

Bernadette died in 1879, at 35 years of age. In 1933, she was canonized by Pius XI. She went to heaven after fulfilling her mission on earth: suffering and offering herself for the conversion of sinners.
