Ascension of the Lord - June 5, 2011

Readings: Acts 1, 1-11; Psalm 46; Ephesians 1, 17-23; Matthew 28: 16-20

The eleven disciples went to the hill in Galilee where Jesus had told them to go.

When they saw him, they worshiped him, even though some of them doubted.

Jesus drew near and said to them, "I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. Go, then, to all peoples everywhere and make them my disciples: baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and teach them to obey everything I have commanded you. And I will be with you always, to the end of the age."

(Matthew 28:16-20)

Reflection

In today's Gospel we can feel ourselves deeply loved as we hear the words of Jesus prayer at the Last Supper.

The wonderful thing about this Gospel is that through Jesus we learn to love and we grow in faith, Jesus is with us today! Jesus ascended to Heaven so that He might be with us always.

The disciples had a mission and we have a mission too. How are you doing it?

Activity

Write a list of names of persons that you know that experience Jesus presence every day. Share the names of the persons. Which one catch your attention?

Prayer

Lord help me to fulfill the mission.

You have given me. You send us to announce the love of God for all, and the salvation that comes from you.

Give us your light and your wisdom to recognize at each moment of the day the ways in which we can be your witnesses through our actions of honesty, justice, love and service to all. Amen.

Read the Bible passage under "Start". Find the picture or symbol that matches the passage. Draw a line connecting them. Read the Bible passage under that picture. Continue finding the matching pictures and drawing connecting lines. If you match the right passages, you will reach "Finish" and win. If you don't go back and try to discover the correct combinations. (There are two possible routes!)

Sunday of Pentecost - June 12, 2011

Readings: Acts 2, 1-11; Psalm 103; 1Corinthians 12, 3-7; John 20, 19-23

Jesus appears to His disciples

It was late that Sunday evening, and the disciples were gathered together behind locked doors, because they were afraid of the Jewish authorities. Then Jesus came and stood among them. Peace be with you," he said. After saying this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy at seeing the Lord. Jesus said to them again. "Peace be with you. As the Father sent me, so I send you." Then he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive peoples sins, they are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven." One of the twelve disciples, Thomas (called the twin), was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!" Thomas said to them, "Unless I see the scars of the nails in his hands and put my finger on those scars and my hand in his side, I will not believe." (John 20, 19-25)

Reflection

Have you ever heard people talk without understanding them? How was this situation solve? Is there peace, patience, joy and respect in our home? Families and communities are unable to communicate because of pride. How do we communicate in our families? Do we try to understand one another? The disciples were very afraid but when they received the Holy Spirit everything was change. For the Holy Spirit there are no foreign languages. Every one can understand the language of love. The apostles received the special gifts of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. We receive them at our Confirmation.

Activity

Read Acts 2, 1-11. Seat the children in a circle. Darken the room. Explain them that we are going to pray like when Mary and the Apostles were gather together. Prepare tongues of fire drawn on construction paper. Behind each tongue write one of the Fruits of the Spirit. Place them on the head of each children. When the prayer is finish pray over each one for the gift they have receive.

Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, Your peace is our greatest gift. Help us to treasure this gift and to know how to use all the gifts you have given us.

Amen

The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are: Wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and holy fear.

For the Seven Gift of the Holy Spirit

Spirit of WISDOM, help me seek God.

Make Him the center of my life.

Make my life pleasing to Him, so that love and peace will always be in my soul.

Spirit of UNDERSTANDING, give light to my mind, that I may know and love the truths of faith and make them truly my own.

Spirit of COUNSEL, give me light and guide me in all my ways, that I may always know and do Your holy will.

Spirit of FORTITUDE, give strength to my soul in every time of trouble or danger. Let me never offend God by willful sin. Strengthen me against temptation.

Spirit of KNOWLEDGE, help me to know good from evil. Teach me to do what is right in the sight of God.

Spirit of PIETY, live in my heart, draw it to true faith in
You, to a holy love of You, My God.
Make me seek You with my whole soul, and find You, my best and truest Friend.

Spirit of HOLY FEAR. Make me always remember Your presence in my soul.
Keep me from sin and give me great reverence for God
and for all people.

COME HOLY SPIRIT

PENTECOST

1

Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!

2

Come,
Father
of the poor
Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine

3

You, of comforters the best

You, the soul's most welcome guest;

6

4

Sweet refreshment
here below

In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.

7

5

O most Blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of yours,
and our inmost being fill!

8

Where are you not, we have naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.

10

Bend the stubborn heart and will

12 Melt the frozen warm the chill;

15

Guide the steps that go astray

Give them virtue's sure reward

17

9

Wash the stains of guilt away

11 On our dryness pour your dew

14

Heal our wounds, our strength renew;

13

On the faithful, who adore and confess you, evermore in your sevenfold gift descend.

16 Give them your salvation, Lord

18

Give them joys that never end. Amen Alleluia.

Most Holy Trinity - June 19, 2011

Readings: Exodus 34, 4-6, 8-9; Psalm Daniel 3; 2Corinthians 13, 11-13; John 3, 16-18

God's Love for the world

For God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not die but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to be its judge, but to be its savior. Those who believe in the Son are not judged; but those who do not believe have already been judged, because they have not believed in God's only Son. (John 3, 16-18)

Reflection

Do you know what a mystery is? It's something that's very difficult to understand, right? That's the Most Holy Trinity, God himself, Father, Son and Holy spirit, three different persons and one true God. The most important thing for understanding this mystery is not the reason but the faith.

Activity

Light a candle. Show the flame, the wax and the wick. It has three different parts but one candle. In God there are three different persons Father, Son and Holy Spirit but one true God.

Prayer

Each child can give thanks for his family and also for being part of the family of God. All respond: Glory to the Father, to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Amen

Corpus Christi - June 26, 2011

Readings: Deuteronomy 8, 2-3.14a; Psalm 147; 1Corinthians 10, 16-17; John 6, 51-58

I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If you eat this bread, you will live forever. The bread that I will give you is my flesh, which I give so that the world may live." This started an angry argument among them. "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" they asked. Jesus said to them, "I am telling you the truth: if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in yourselves.

Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them to life on the last day. For my flesh is the real food; my blood is the real drink,

Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood live in me, and I live in them.

The living Father sent me, and because of him I live also. In the same way whoever eats me will live because of me. This, then, is the bread that came down from heaven; it is not like the bread that your ancestors ate, but then later died. Those who eat this bread will live forever." (John 6, 51-58)

Reflection

*Talk with the children about being hungry. Can they imagine how many children suffer because they don't have anything to eat? Besides food, what other things can we be hungry for? What would we really like people to do for us? What do our moms, grandparents, and friends want us to do for them? How do we do it? Share

Activity

Prepare an invitation for a friend or relative who does not go to Mass. Tell him you will wait for him next Sunday. Make a place in your heart for Jesus doing something special for someone this week. Try to visit Jesus at church.

Prayer

*You are our bread, Lord. You give us strength to continue walking in this life. You call us to fill the hungers of our brothers and sisters. Make us bread of compassion, affection, respect and love for one another. Amen.

We adore Him!

Jesus, look! I will bring them back to You. Thanks to the children's prayers.

You're our King!

We will console You!

I love You Jesus!

Don't worry, Jesus; I will tell them all Your words.

With You, we have no fear!

I adore You!
