Solemnity of Christmas

Isaiah 52, 7-10; Psalm 98; Hebrew 1, 1-6; John 1, 1-18 o 1, 1-5. 9-14

The Birth of Jesus

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be. What came to be through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, but the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, but his own people did not accept him. But to those who did accept him he gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in his name, who were born not by natural generation nor by human choice nor by a man's decision but of God. And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth.

Reflection

The Gospel begins speaking about the Word as a person; and that person was there since the beginning with God and was God. Who is the Gospel talking about? (Jesus is the Word of God. When we hear the words of Jesus in the Gospel, we are hearing God.) Did Jesus create the world? (Yes, the Gospel says that, without the Word, nothing came to be. Jesus is God.) The Gospel also says that the Word is true _____? (Light which enlightens everyone.) What does Jesus enlighten for us? (The path to happiness and to Heaven, eternal happiness.) His own people did not accept him. To whom is the Gospel referring? (The leaders of God's chosen people who had their hearts full of sin.) The Gospel says that those that did accept him he gave power to become children of God. How do we become children of God? (In the Sacrament of Baptism, we receive the Holy Spirit and enter into God's family.) The Gospel says that the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. When does this event happen? (In the Annunciation and in Christmas; God became man to reveal His love for us and to save us.) We saw the glory of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth. How can we live full of grace and truth? (We can approach Jesus in the Sacraments and open our hearts to His Grace (His life) which leads us to live as children of God.)

Activity

On the following page, make the Story of Christmas book. Tell someone the story. On the last page, make a card and give to someone who needs love this Christmas.

Prayer

Baby Jesus, thank you for the love you showed me by coming to earth, and living and dying for me. I want to celebrate this Christmas with you. I want to know you, to receive you and your gift of eternal life. Please help me to share that love with everyone. Amen.

THE CHRISTMAS STORY BOOK

Instructions: Color and cut each picture writing underneath. Fold a piece of construction paper in half, top to bottom, then again, top to bottom. Cut along the folds. Fold the strips of paper in half and staple at the fold to form a book with the fold on top. Glue the title on the front and a picture on each page. Write a note to Jesus on the last page.

THE CHRISTMAS STORY

A long time ago, a very special and beautiful girl named Mary, had an apparition. The Angel Gabriel appeared to her and told her that she had been chosen by God to be the mother of the Savior.

Mary's fiancé, Joseph, also had an apparition of the Angel in one of his dreams. The angel said that he shouldn't hesitate to take Mary in marriage, since the baby she was expecting was God's child.

Mary then visited with her cousin, Elizabeth, who was also expecting a baby. She exclaimed with happiness as she saw Mary: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb."

Soon after they were married, Mary and Joseph had to travel to Bethlehem, but when they arrived they couldn't find any lodging.

The only shelter they could find was a stable used for animals, this is where Jesus was born. Mary wrapped him and placed him in a manger for a crib.

Shepherds came from nearby. Wise men brought gifts from far away places; and they all praised baby Jesus as their "new King".
