BIOGRAPHY

Gabriel Dancer, as one of the most recognized pioneers of the Hungarian tech house scene, is determined to popularize and spread tech house beats. He has been passionate about music since he was very young. He has been working regularly as a music producer since 2019. In the first year, world stars such as Roger Sanchez and Fatboy Slim played his music. Regular performer in clubs and festivals in Hungary. You always want to satisfy your audience and make sure they have a good time with quality entertainment. Gabriel's style is both energetic and groove-oriented, but he also likes vocal themes. With decades of musical experience, his characteristic mix and mashup style is what makes him stand out from the crowd! He also works as a club, tour manager and event organizer. He is the co-founder of our DJ school, where he teaches and mentors talents. Gabriel founded the NEXUS RECORDINGS label in 2023, which took off at rocket speed, since within one month of its operation, the label was included in the TECH HOUSE and ELECTRO POP HYPE TOP 50 in the BEATSTAS.com quarterly report, out of thousands of labels, where it moves up on a daily basis, featuring new music from around the world every week. From the entire world. In March 2024, the international NEXUS RECORDINGS RADIO SHOW started, which is broadcast by more and more countries' radio stations every week. The program has almost 2 million listeners per month. The broadcast service is provided by Syndicast, who manage the broadcasts of big names such as: David Guetta, Tiësto, Robin Schulz, Eelke Kleijn, Chris Liebing, David Morales, David Penn, The Cube Guys, Ramon Tapia and we could go on and on.

ANTIQUE

Antique is an up-and-coming tech-house DJ and producer from Budapest who has found his sound in the world of darker beats. His sets are characterised by a sense of movement and unique musical experimentation that always manages to surprise his audience.

He has performed at prestigious domestic festivals such as Balaton Sound and Sziget Festival. His talent and dedication are best proven by the fact that he reached the finals of the elrow Up and Coming competition, one of the most prestigious contests in the international electronic music scene.

Antique is an active figure in Budapest's house scene, regularly performing at the city's most popular clubs and events.

His goal is to enrich the local electronic music culture with his music and energetic performances while creating unforgettable experiences for his audience.
