About Me

Hi, I'm Jill — the designer behind Hello Cupcake, a boutique wedding dessert studio specializing in elegant cupcake towers, buttercream florals, and beautifully styled dessert displays.

After years of creating one-of-a-kind desserts for celebrations across Acadiana, I now focus exclusively on weddings, allowing me to give every couple a more personal, elevated, and detail-driven experience.

From romantic buttercream flower cupcakes to grand multitiered towers, each design is handcrafted with intention, artistry, and meticulous attention to detail — creating dessert displays that are just as meaningful and beautiful as the love you're celebrating.
