

“

Anti-racist educators understand the impact of institutionalized racism, white supremacy, inequality, and power on the lives of children and intentionally act to dismantle those structures.

---

DR. TAWANNA JONES
MORRISON

<https://tjonesmorrison.com/>

Spec.Ed.
Consult

Anti-racist educators are honest about the privileges they bring into the classroom.

@Inclusive Teaching University of Michigan

Anti-racist educators acknowledge the journey toward anti-racism is not one size fit all.

Racial Healing Handbook...
Anneliese A. Singh, PhD, LPC

Each person will have a different path to travel.

Read. Reflect. Remember that racism exists.

Take risks.

Build relationships.

Anti-racist Educators are intentional about creating Brave spaces.

https://tlss.uottawa.ca/site/perspective-autochtone/1d\_From-Safe-Spaces-to-Brave-Spaces.pdf

Safe vs. Brave

Safe is not always a possibility when engaged in work that centers social justice. Brave spaces center personal accountability, while safe spaces tend to protect the privileged.

Liberation is the goal.

“Principles for social change and transformation through education based on consciousness-raising and engagement with oppressive forces.”