

Camp Policies and General Information

Seventh-day Adventists and their families will find Camp Winnekeag an ideal location for inspiration, fellowship and recreation. Operated by the Southern New England Conference of Seventh-day Adventist, it is used for youth camps June through August, and is available to families, youth groups, church gatherings and small conventions from September through the last weekend of May.

Camp Winnekeag is situated beside beautiful Lake Winnekeag in Ashburnham, Massachusetts and central to many historical sites. There are trails for hiking and abundant opportunities for nature study and photography. The lake affords the water enthusiast opportunities to swim, canoe, kayak, paddle, or ski. Other activities include climbing wall, canopy zip line and archery. There is abundant room for tent camping and a few RV sites. Our Activity Center has a capacity of 500 and is equipped for both basketball and volley ball. The camp is dedicated to the preservation of the natural beauty of the camp and surrounding area. Each visitor is encouraged to participate in this endeavor.
