FLOCK FUSION JR SHEEP SHOW HIGHLIGHTS

Overall Aggregate score winners (1st-10th): Cole Grinwis, Summer McIntyre, Bethany Woodhouse, Colby Young, Josie Crawford, Nolan McIntyre, Shelby Crawford, Gerik Seeley, Khloe Dewall, Danielle Lamont

The Flock Fusion event June 27th and 28th was held at Rockton Fairgrounds and attracted over 50 youth.

Saturday included events like a scavenger hunt, salesmanship and team judging competitions, and learning about fitting and training your lamb. Sunday was the show including showmanship and conformation for market lambs, breeding lambs and yearlings. Thank you to Adam Smith and Patty Lasby for judging our salesmanship and team judging competitions on Saturday. Thank you to Whitney Ball for the show photography, to Chris Atkinson for judging the show, and to the organizing committee for another successful weekend!

PSBO SALE HIGHLIGHTS

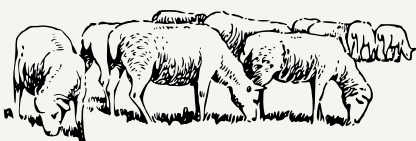

The 2026 Online Sale, facilitated through DLMS, was hosted in conjunction with the Flock Fusion Junior Event on June 27th.

Through the sale, buyers from 5 provinces purchased 40 of 43 animals offered for sale. Prices averaged $927 for ewes and $717 for rams. The top selling ewe was a Border Leicester yearling ewe, McGlashan 87N consigned by McGlashan Leicesters of Lowbanks, ON and sold for $1600 to Dusty Creek Farm of Mira Road, NS. The top selling ram was a Suffolk yearling ram, Mactaggart 25-160N consigned by Mactaggart Family Suffolks & Seguin Sheep of North Gower, ON and sold for $1400 to Irwin Jackson of Rockwood, ON.

New for this year sale, three $500 Junior Flock Advancement Credits were used towards the purchase of purebred animals.

Winners were randomly selected after completing a marketing task in the spring. Congratulations to Shelby Crawford, Nolan McIntyre and Bethany Woodhouse on your sale purchases!

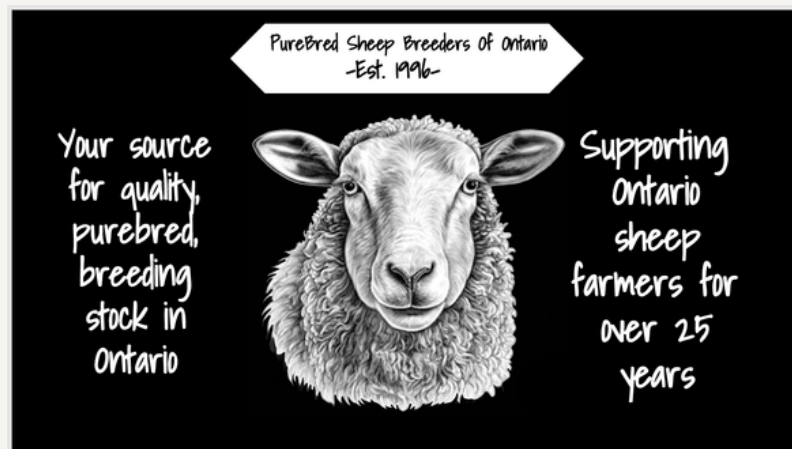

Thank you to the PSBO sale sub-committee and directors as well as returning and new consignors, bidders, and buyers. We look forward to continuing to encourage youth involvement in the sheep industry and the promotion and advancement of purebred sheep in Ontario and Canada.
