MARY'S MESSAGE

by Mary P

Our first meeting held at New World United Methodist Church was a success. I am sorry if the weather kept you away, we will meet in our new home unless something changes.

Spring, love this time of year!! Flowers blooming, warmer weather and some rain making the ground softer. We still have to take care of ourselves, stay hydrated and watch our surroundings.

Our meeting will start at 7:30. Bill and I will arrive about 6:30 to start setting up. Please bring snacks or drinks to share.

Take care, see you Friday the 8th of April.

Late Breaking News

It is with great sadness I must inform you of the passing of Jim G. Jim was our most recent "outside" speaker and had promised to bring us more programs. See obituary on page 5 & 6.

Health and well being of members: Bob S had a good report from the doctor. Our Dear Mrs. G passed away, she was one great lady. Our speaker James S had to reschedule due to the weather. Bill A, the Head of Trustee at our church we are meeting in; had fallen off a ladder and in need of prayers. New Business: Mary P asked if we could donate $50.00 a month to the church for use of the building. Dave T made the first motion, Harold R gave the second motion.

Old business: What did we want in the fundraiser? Tracy J prefers all silver. Harold R believes it is best to continue with the variety until we grow. Terry S said he spends on the next month what is earned from the previous month's meeting.

Larry V made the motion to not read the minutes at the meetings. Terry S gave the second motion and Dave T gave a 3rd motion. The motion passed and the minutes will be read by members from the Newsletter.

Speaker is Terry S.

Terry spoke on fake coins. Terry had some various examples of fake and real coins to compare.

Fun Hunt will be held March 20 at 1:00pm at Lions Park in Waxahachie. There is a $2 fee to enter the Token Hunt.

Door Prize Winners: Leticia R, Larry V and Al H won a fake coin. Robert J, Dave T, Terry S and Becky N won a silver dime.

Marble Raffle Drawing: Becky N who pulled a white marble and won $2.00.

Huntmaster's Report

by Dave T

ED NOTE: Dave was out of town so this report was by Mary P

Sunday, March 20th was a beautiful day for a Fun Hunt. Several of us gathered at Lion's Park in Waxahachie around 2:00. Hunt Master Dave T and Treasurer Terry S had the token hunt field ready for us. Bill A found the silver quarter. Yay first time.

The random category prizes were awarded a little differently. Silver dimes for first place was the prize.

Most Pull Tabs: Terry S
Most Aluminum: Terry R
Most Dimes: Terry S

In Memory

JIM R. G, JR. 92, OF GARLAND

Funeral services are scheduled for Jim G, author and historian, at 2:00 pm on Monday, April 4, 2022, in Eastgate Funeral Home, Garland.

Jim G, a Dallas History professor at Richland College and best selling Dallas author has spent the last eleven years with the Dallas County Assassination Review Board. In his quest he has rediscovered much of the forgotten history of Dallas' most prominent figures who would leave their mark upon America's History.

His father was a Chicago stock broker and Jim was born eleven days before the market crash of 1929, Jim made his journey from Chicago to Dallas in a laundry basket in the back seat of a 1929 Hudson. He would spend his entire life in Dallas and, today bears the mark of a great storyteller and historian. He engages his listeners carrying them back in time to long-forgotten places and revealing the secrets hidden away in the dusty attics of time.

Among the many books written about notable figures of Dallas, Texas you will meet; Benny B, Dallas Gambler and Mob boss - Sheriff Bill D a Texas legend - J. Frank N - Top O' Hill Casino & The Texas Oil Rich - The Ku Klux Klan's stronghold over Dallas - Slats R and the Love Field Lunatics - Bonnie P's Baby Daughter - Captain Will F and the Dallas Mafia and learn that the JFK's Assassination Was a Mafia Hit.

Ancient Roman Gladiator School Found Using Remote-Sensing Techniques

In Compliance News

February 28, 2014

A team of archaeologists found an ancient Roman gladiator school in Austria using remote-sensing techniques over the last several years. The buried remains cover over 2,800 square meters and includes cell blocks, a training arena and a bath complex.

The outline of the school was found using aerial photography, ground-penetrating radar and magnetometer surveys. One technique the team used was attaching an electromagnetic induction sensor to the front of a four-wheeler ATV to transmit an EM field to create currents in the ground. Analyzing the soil's electrical conductivity and magnetic susceptibility, the team was able to find out if the ground had ever been heated, uncovering hidden bricks.

Read more about how the team took this data to create a virtual 3D model of what the school may have looked like in ancient times.
