From 2002 to 2004, In Los Angeles California, Robert Badal was a Credentialed ESL teacher for Los Angeles Unified School District and taught adults ranging in age from 17 to 74. These students also varied in their first language from Russian, to Spanish, to Korean, to Amharic (the language of Ethiopia).

He was highly rated by both administration and students and also raised English competence test scores an average of 20% higher than the District average (see Teaching Experience: Test Preparation & Study Abroad).

Mr. Badal is a natural ESL teacher. He strives for continuous improvement and uses a variety of different methods of teaching. His strong background in writing and acting combines with his extensive language knowledge for effective English instruction. He has worked closely with another teacher at the branch for two years and has been very successful in teaching English to English learners at different levels. Mr. Badal's rapport with his students displays sincerity and caring.

*Maestro Badal podría enseñar a un caballo para hablar Inglés!
(Teacher Badal could teach a horse to speak English!)*

Student motto about Robert Badal at Los Angeles Unified School District

Moving to Japan in 2004 to teach at Meito High School (see Teaching Experience: Secondary School), Robert soon began getting requests to teach individual adult and adult student groups that included people from all walks of life, including housewives, bank presidents, doctors, and engineers.

During his eight years in Japan, Robert taught many adult private students, both one-to-one and in groups.

He began teaching at the elite Toyota Central R & D Laboratory and others (see Business & Teacher Training Experience: Technical & Medical English). These also included editing and writing (see Experience: Editing & Writing, Business, Technical, & Medical).

In 2007, soon after starting as a full-time professor at Nanzan Junior College (see Teaching Experience: University), Robert began to teach Saturday Adult ESL Beginning and Intermediate classes for the Nanzan University Extension department and continued to do so until the end of 2009.

Robert relocated to Chongqing in 2012. Initially, he taught kids at Owen Education and the Stilwell Foreign Language School (see Teaching Experience: English for Kids and Test Preparation, Immigration, and Study Abroad). Robert also taught adults part time at deugro Logistics and was particularly focused on accent reduction for presentation (see Experience: Corporate & Government Consulting).

I have had many private English teachers, but Robert is the best. He is the only one to coach accent-reduction and pronunciation. My English sounds 100% better in my business presentations and conversations thanks to his excellent teaching.

Wang Jing, District Manager, deugro Logistics

Robert Badal Consulting

Robert moved to Hong Kong in 2014 to marry Amy Leung. He initially retained his position with Changan Ford, but took on other consulting clients under his new company, Robert Badal Consulting. The Robert Badal Consulting brand name was phased out in 2020. He continued doing corporate consulting but with more emphasis on Business Mentoring of adult students. This includes both marketing consulting and adult ESL teaching, especially in Business English applications such as accent reduction, presentation & communication (including letters & emails), and marketing & training English.

In Hong Kong he has had Adult ESL students of all ages and from all walks of life.

From 2016 through 2018 Robert taught a Community Adult ESL class in his neighborhood of Tsuen Wan .

The classes did not have a specific level and had students with varying amounts of English.

He used a variety of teaching methods, including role play, writing, games, and drama (see Teaching Experience: Drama & Public Speaking).
