Colossians 4:2-3 – Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving; Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

Dear Pastors, Church Friends, and Family

I'm writing tonight and I'm just in amazement of how good God is to me and my family. Today February 7th 2021 our sending Church had a special day for us. Which by the way we don't feel worthy of nor do we ever want a fuss made for us. This morning I had the great privilege of Baptizing my son James. After this our field director with BIM I Brother Larson and his precious wife drove down and presented us with our Pins for BIM I. This was such a special time for Jamie and I and the Kids. It's similar to a graduation of Sorts. It was the culmination of much prayer and lots of preparation.

Starting the first week of January I began calling churches and praying and seeking God to fill our calendar with appointments. WOW!!! I've had one pastor call me and schedule our family for a mission's conference in South Carolina. He was praying over the BIM I website and the Lord guided him to us. Pray for the Meeting in March. I had another church email me and schedule us for a mission's conference in New Hampshire in October. The Lord has also allowed us to book other meetings as well.

One of those meetings was at a Church in Dacula Ga. They were our first scheduled appointment. It happened to also be the first appointment that God allowed us to book. The Lord allowed me to present our burden for New York to this dear church. The only way I know to describe what happened next is "The Lord!" The Pastor preached a message, and they sang a song, and then a member of the church decided to take us on monthly for support. I was overwhelmed and Humbled. Then the Church voted right there before the service ended to take us on also!! Three hours later I am still amazed at how God works. I pray in the days, weeks, months, and even years ahead that I never forget and that I never lose sight of the fact that everything accomplished is by him and not me! I pray the same thing for each of you as you serve our Savior and his people!!

In Christ
