THE NEXT GENERATION IS ALIVE & WELL

Elder Abusa Priscilla Mgala reports that they held a Ministers Conference the last days of September. Praise God, our late Elder Augustine Mgala’s son, Augustine Junior was the featured speaker. It’s wonderful to see leadership span generations!

I have such fond memories of the first time I met Solomon Mwesige. He had thirty people meeting under a shelter held up by six poles, covered with part tarp and part plastic. He now has a church seating four thousand, feeds over 60,000 refugees daily, has a Christian School, and hosted this year’s international conference! He has a wonderful family serving alongside him! It does my heart good to see him holding his grandson. The next generation is in preparation!

Annie Chikhwaza reports an amazing day where four youngsters who grew up at Kondanani graduated from the Catholic University of Malawi. What a joy!
