Sarah Jorgensen is one of the founding partners of Reichman Jorgensen. Sarah served as a clerk for the U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice William H. Rehnquist and for the Honorable Lawrence H. Silberman of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit. She also served as a trial lawyer with the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice. She was an associate at Kellogg, Huber, Hansen, Todd & Evans in Washington, D.C., and in-house legal counsel for Textron, Inc. in Providence, Rhode Island.

Sarah brings her analytical skills to bear on a wide range of both trial and appellate matters. Her cases include complex tort, commercial, and intellectual property litigation. Sarah and Courtland have been collaborating on cases for more than 15 years and pride themselves on providing superior representation based on a true team effort.
