

Valentine's Day 2023

Questions

I want to ask you some questions
I wish I could hear your reply
Tell me what Heaven is like?
Tell me if you can fly?

Is it what you expected?
Because I'm not so sure
Was it worth all the suffering
That you had to endure?

Do you watch over us?
I think that you do
Because the voice inside my head
Now sounds a lot like you

We struggled at first
And our heads were bowed
But they didn't stay there for long
Because we want to make you proud

Cole is working in San Jose
Opportunities are starting to unfurl
He is working 80 hours a week
Wanting to take over the world

It's been very hard on Mia
Having had you pulled away
But she has your toughness
She graduates college in May

I remember when I read your Valentine poems
I'd look up and see your tears of joy
With a look of amazement, you would say
"This is the man I married, I don't want the boy."

Or when I first called you an angel
You blushed but said quick
I'm not sure I deserve that
But I am angelic

I still laugh at your jokes
You were so quirky and fun
So beautiful sipping cocktails
While lying in the sun

Coming home from shopping
With more things than I ever had
Telling Mia to hide some of the bags
Or Dad will get mad

I used to walk for an hour each night
But now I walk for two
It looks like I'm listening to music
But that's where I will be spending Valentine's Day with you!

Beloved Lana,
Again, As Always & Forever
Happy Valentine's Day
I Love You, Always!
Michael
